INSURANCE OFFICES

Highly Important to Farmers.
The only Exclusive Farmers' Insurance Company in the West.

THE MADISON MUTUAL,
Located at Madison, Wisconsin.

THIS COMPANY CONTINUES TO TAKE RISKS upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible Companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereof.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses, but your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds if not three fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and similar property. In this Company all such property is rejected positively by laying rates above.

Farmers look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and we can boast of a feature that few can, that we have not had a single dollar lost though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

MILWAUKEE MUTUAL
FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
Office in Martin's Block, Milwaukee.

Capital over $165,000—in Cash and Premium Notes.
THIS Company offers unrivalled facilities for the insurance of Buildings and Personal Property against fire. The advantages offered, are security beyond the reach of circumstances, as the real estate insured is by law bound for the assessment made to cover losses beyond the power of erosion. Every person insured is a member of the Company, and entitled to one vote. The cost of insurance does not exceed one third as much as in Stock Companies, saying nothing of the increased security and the incomparable ease with which losses are settled. During the last five years, this Company have issued 8600 Policies, and made but three assessments at a cost to the property insured, not exceeding two mills on the dollar. Its business is principally confined to this State.

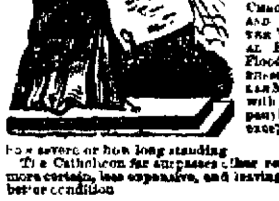
DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
CELEBRATED CATHOLICON,
For the Relief and Cure of Suffering Females.



IT STANDS PREEMINENT for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended usually called Female Complaints.
Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb, FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites,— CHRONIC INFLAMMATION, AND ULCERATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE, OR FLOODING; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted,) no matter how severe or how long standing.

This Catholicon far surpasses other remedies, in being more certain, less expensive, and leaving the system in a better condition.

I have no hesitation in saying Dr. MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON is invaluable in uterine diseases generally. I have used it in Fluor Albus, Amenorrhœa, Prolapsus Uteri, and in cases of extensive ulceration of the vagina and os uteri. It is worthy of the notice of the Faculty.
JOHN C. ORRICK, M. D.,
Baltimore, Md.

The Catholicon is doing good service here. All the patients that have tried the medicine have been benefited but one—and that one nothing will help.
Truly Yours,
WM. LAIRD HAZLETT, M. D.
July 6th, 1854. New Philadelphia, Ohio.

I must say, from my own experience and personal observations in my practice, it has proved to be the best and safest remedy for the difficulties for which it is recommended, viz: that of female weakness, such as Prolapsus Uteri, Fluor Albus, and all irregular and painful menstruations, and diseases of irritation of the female organs.
D. Y. FOOTE, M. D.,
Syracuse, N. Y.

Those needing such a remedy should inquire into the merits of this medicine, and by calling at the store of the undersigned can obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use, together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

INSURANCE OFFICES

Highly Important to Farmers.

The only Exclusive Farmers' Insurance Company in the West.

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

Located at Madison Wisconsin.

THIS COMPANY CONTINUES TO TAKE RISKS upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible Companies

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made to them. [illegible]

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than city risks, consequently you will have no losses, only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing

Experience has shown that two-thirds if not three fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and all other property. In this Company all such property is rejected positively by its own rules. [illegible]

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and we think few if any companies have had a single dollar less [illegible] doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

Capital over $165,000—in Cash and Premium Notes.

THIS Company offers unrivalled facilities for the insurance of Buildings and Personal Property against fire. The advantages offered, are security beyond the reach of circumstances, as the real estate insured is by law bound for the assessment made to cover losses beyond the power of erosion. Every person insured is a member of the Company, and entitled to one vote. The cost of insurance does not exceed one third as much as in Stock Companies, saying nothing of the increased security and the incomparable ease with which losses are settled. During the last five years, this Company have issued 9600 Policies, and made but three assessments at a cent to the property insured, not exceeding two mills on the dollar. Its business is principally confined to this State

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S

CELEBRATED CATHOLICON,

For the Relief and Cure of Suffering Females.

IT STANDS PREeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended usually called

Female Complaints.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb, FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites, CHRONIC INFLAMMATION, AND ULCERATION OF THE WOMB, INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE, or Flooding, PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted,) no matter how severe or how long standing

This Catholicon far surpasses other remedies, in being more certain, less expensive, and leaving the system in a better condition

I have no hesitation in saying Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon is invaluable in uterine diseases generally. I have used it in Fluor Albus, Amenorrhoea, Prolapsus Uteri, and in cases of extensive ulceration of the vagina and os uteri. It is worthy of the notice of the Faculty.

JOHN C. ORRICK, M. D.,
Baltimore, Md.

The Catholicon is doing good service here. All the patients that have tried the medicine have been benefitted but one—and that one nothing will help

Truly Yours,
WM. LAIRD HAZLETT, M. D.,
July 6th, 1854 New Philadelphia, Ohio.

I must say, from my own experience and personal observations in my practice, it has proved to be the best and safest remedy for the difficulties for which it is recommended, viz: that of female weakness, such as Prolapsus Uteri, Fluor Albus, and all irregular and painful menstruation, and diseases of irritation of the female organs.

D. Y. FOOTE, M. D.,
Syracuse, N. Y.

Those needing such a remedy should inquire into the merits of this medicine, and by calling at the store of the undersigned can obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use, together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

Judicial Election

[illegible] pleasure of announcing that the [illegible] of Grant County, in compliance [illegible] of a large number of [illegible] Legislature and other gentlemen [illegible] of the State and without [illegible] party has consented to become [illegible] Candidate for Associate Judge [illegible]. Mr Cole is eminently [illegible] responsible post and will fill it with [illegible] independence. [illegible] Ex-Water, heretofore [illegible] for the same station, [illegible] will support Mr. Cole.

The Independent Movement.

[illegible] our columns this morning [illegible] citizens of our city, who are [illegible] the election without distinction [illegible] several city and ward [illegible] their respective wards [illegible] to a City Convention [illegible] for Aldermen, Assessors [illegible] places and justifies itself and [illegible] by all who wish [illegible] the welfare and the prosperity [illegible] a strong feeling in favor [illegible] which has been increased [illegible] the partisan nominations [illegible] to.

Dr. Castleman's Address.

[illegible] morning the able and eloquent [illegible] by Dr A L Castleman, of [illegible] annual meeting of the [illegible]. It is an elegant and [illegible] the claims of the Medical [illegible] and generous [illegible] it is too, a clear exposition [illegible] to meet and overcome [illegible] that medical schools [illegible] Wisconsin, instead of sending [illegible] abroad to study a profession [illegible] be taught as well at home, [illegible] such schools and the effect [illegible] Dr. Castleman's, would contribute [illegible] to arrest the growth of medical [illegible] and save the people from being [illegible] quacks.

The City Post Office.

We [illegible] of two since, in answer to the [illegible] of the Wisconsin against the City Postmaster for refusing to enlarge the office, and against its contemporaries of the city press for declining to unite in its [illegible], that the Sentinel had long before [illegible] attention to this very matter [illegible] made the necessary arrangements for increasing the accomodations [illegible] by the 1st of April. The Wisconsin [illegible] to question this statement [illegible] take to itself the exclusive credit [illegible] the Postmaster into this Post-office enlargement. A very few words will suffice [illegible] that this, like all else uttered by [illegible] the subject, is both false and foolish.

The present P. M., on receiving his appointment, found the office where it is now located; and we are authorized and requested by Mr. Wm. A. [illegible] the owner and lessor of the premises to state that very soon after taking possession [illegible] applied to him for the lease of the [illegible] with a view of enlarging the office [illegible] were under lease to other [illegible] May, 1856, and though Mr [illegible] efforts to obtain it, he failed [illegible] until very recently. The addition [illegible] store will make the City Post [illegible] convenient. It will be fitted [illegible] the boxes, fixtures and [illegible] amounting to $1,000. It only remains [illegible] the day before the Wisconsin [illegible] appeared, the architect had completed his plans and the carpenters were making their estimates, for the proposed P. O. enlargement. Thus it will be seen that more than a year before the Wisconsin had anything to [illegible] the subject, the Postmaster had repeatedly attempted to procure additional room, and that the enlargement at length provided for, is precisely what Mr Noonan proposed nearly [illegible], and has neither been expedited, or [illegible] by the incessant din which the Wisconsin has kept up.

Cool Comfort.—It is currently reported that [illegible] who has recently returned from [illegible] Washington did not meet with [illegible] reception there that the Doughfaces [illegible] to have expected. Uncle Sam [illegible] well enough, and somewhat [illegible] his ideas and action about [illegible] to pick a quarrel with one of his [illegible] children. Wisconsin [illegible] up [illegible] gallantly in defence of those old [illegible] Republican franchises the writ of Habeas Corpus and the Right of Trial by Jury.

The Milwaukee & La Crosse Rail Road, [illegible].—We learn from Mr Cleveland that he has already made arrangements with [illegible] & McLaughlin for all the grading of the road from Hartford to Horicon, and with Messrs. [illegible] & Arnold for all that part [illegible] unfinished, between this city and Hartford. The community knowing [illegible] energy and responsibility of both these firms [illegible] their having the road in readiness for [illegible] the fall crops, without any mistake.

Illinois Senator.—Gov Matteson, of Illinois, refuses to sign Judge Trumbull's certificate of election as U S Senator from Illinois. He bases [illegible] on the ground that the Judge is not eligible under the clause of the Constitution which prohibits any Judge of the Supreme Court from accepting any other office during the term for which he was elected Judge, nor for one year after the expiration of such term. Judge Trumbull has resigned the office of Judge, but the term for which he was elected is not yet expired!

It is also said that the Governor refuses to give a certificate to [illegible] of the 9th District upon similar grounds.

We do not suppose that the giving or withholding of a "certificate" by a Governor, determines the question of a Senator's or Representative's election. The People, by themselves or thro' the Legislature, choose their Representatives in Congress, and all that the Governor is asked [illegible] authorized to do, is to certify to the result. If he refuses to do this, the Senate and House of Representatives will undoubtedly admit the members elect to their seats without the Executive certificate.

Life lost at a Fire.—At the recent destruction by fire of Fords & Boyd's manufactory in Chicago Mr Joseph M. Arnold, the Assistant Foreman lost his life in the flames. It was not known that he had perished, till the day after the fire, when the rumor that he was missing led to an examination of the ruins and among the still smoking embers, his charred remains were found. It is supposed that he had gone into the burning building to get out a chest of tools, and that the rapid spread of the flames cut off his retreat. He was a native of Vermont, 44 years old, and leaves a wife and three children in comfortable circumstances.

Political [illegible].—A County Mass Meeting of all persons opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise and in favor of the principles of the Republican Party as organized in this State, is to be held at Blake's Hall, Port Washington, to-morrow, the 3d instant, for business purposes.

From Madison.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL.

Madison, Feb. 28.

Soon after the opening of the Senate this morning, the resolution introduced yesterday by Mr. Reymert was taken up. It reads as follows:

Whereas, the investigation of the administration of the State affairs, after a session of seven weeks, has not bro't to light any fraud, corruption or wrong committed by any public officer. And whereas, the public interests demand a speedy and thorough exposition of the manner in which the state officers have discharged their responsible duties: therefore,

Resolved, That the several committees to whom any subject may have been referred for investigation, be requested to use all reasonable diligence to report at as early a day as practicable the result of their inquiries, in order either to condemn or acquit the officers of the grave charges brought against them, and thus relieving the public of suspense and bringing the session to a speedy close.

This resolution is regarded as an effort of the combined and concentrated wisdom of the State Administration, and is only another step in the bluff game which they have been playing. It has evidently been boiled down from half a dozen of the Democrat's leading editorials.

On its being read this morning, Mr. Wakely moved to postpone it indefinitely. Mr. Reymert defended it faintly as necessary to vindicate the State officers from the charges against them.

Mr Taylor next took the floor and for about three quarters of an hour devoted himself with ability and earnestness to a most scathing rebuke of the course of the Administration, and showed by facts and figures already before the Legislature that something at least, had already been done towards investigation. We shall doubtless have a report of this speech, and it should be widely circulated among the people.— To its conclusion, the vote was taken, and the preamble and resolution indefinitely postponed, by the following vote:

Ayes: Adams, Bashford, Bowen, Clement, Cobb, Gill, Giles, Harvey, Paddock, Rolfe, Sutherland, Taylor, Wakely, West, Worthington—15.

Noes: Dewey, Dunn, Eldredge, Gibson, Kelsey, McGarry, Reymert—7.

☞ If the above resolutions had passed the Senate, we should have have had a general shout of joy from the Barstow organs at the "vindication" of the State Administration. Inasmuch as the resolutions were killed, two to one, is it not fair to conclude ——— but the subject is a tender one.

Bills were introduced

By Mr Harvey, repealing the act extending the time for paying interest on school lands.

By Mr Bowen, charter of Dodge Co. Iron and Steel Co.

By Mr Eldridge, for docketing judgments in vacation.

By Mr Gill, for election of Register in Washington Co. (Rules suspended and passed.)

By Mr Loy, to add more election districts in Oconto and Door counties—passed.

By Mr Gibson, charter of St Croix Bridge Co.

The list of bills passed has already gone to you, except the names of those to whom appropriations were made. I supply them here:

S S Conover, the sheriff of Rock Co, S Chapman, S VanBergen, W S Main, D Monson, V W Roth, J G Henning, D S Durrie, A S Wood, S Mills, W E Cramer, M Martin.

A Message from the Governor was read, giving the reasons for pardoning various convicts from the State Prison.

Take things altogether, the Senate did a very good morning's work.

In Assembly, 9 A M
Petitions were presented;
By Mr Gunn, for liquor law.
By Mr Isham, for do
By Mr Goodrich, from Free Will Baptist Conference for liquor law.
By Mr P H Smith, for a grant of swamp lands to aid a road in Oconto Co.

A communication was read from nine persons in Dane County Jail, ascribing their condition to the sale and use of liquor, and praying for a prohibitory law.

Resolutions:

By Mr Downs, to meet at 2½ P M to-morrow and hereafter, and to work on the general file of bills—Adopted.

By Mr Gary, calling on the Governor as to whether the plats of the swamp lands have been received from the General Government, so as to give the State a title to the lands—Adopted. (It seems quite proper that before much time is spent in legislating concerning these lands, the State should have a title to them.)

By Mr Earnest, with a "Whereas" reciting the defenceless condition of this country in these warlike times, and instructing Mr Thompson, the Chairman of the Militia Committee, to have 1000 copies of the 270th section Militia Bill securely bound. No action was taken on this important proposition.

Bills introduced:

By Mr A Taylor, to protect the lives of persons in certain cases. (It makes Companies liable to the heirs of persons killed by negligence or carelessness.)

By Mr Delany, to amend sec 2 of an act relative to Railroad Companies.

By Mr Rogan, to amend charter of Watertown.

By Mr Earnest, to vacate certain alleys in Shullsburg.

Among the Reports of Committees:

Mr. Randall, from Judiciary Committee, reported against bill raising the salary of Judges and in favor of bills for filing transcript of justice's judgments, for amending mechanics' lien law, for allowing county orders to be received in payment for lands at tax sales, and for exempting from toll persons on the way to and from church on Sundays.

Mr Van Nostrand, from joint select committee, reported to pay the Sergeants-at-Arms $3 00 each Postmasters ditto, other assistants $2 50 each and messengers $2 00 each.

Mr P H Smith, from select committee reported a bill to alter the usury laws so as to limit the interest only, instead of both principal and interest.

Mr Virgin moved to suspend the rules to pass the bill for the purchase of 1500 copies of Webster's unabridged dictionary for schools. (The bill provides for paying $4 00 per copy, to be paid half in 1856 and the remainder in 1857, out of the library money of the School fund of the several towns.) The House refused to suspend the rules.

Mr. Field moved to take up the special order the Temperance Bill—carried, and Mr. Orton resumed the chair, in committee of the whole.

Several amendments were adopted, and more voted down. Among the former, was one allowing the arrest of drunkards and compelling them to testify as to where they got the "creature," and another providing that a search of dwelling-houses for liquor for private use shall not be allowed.

Among those voted down were the following:

Allowing the manufacture of liquor.

Allowing the sale to continue till all the liquor now in the state be disposed of.

Allowing more time for disposal of liquor, the property of estates of deceased persons.

Allowing the manufacture and sale of beer, native wine and cider.

On this last the only debate of the morning arose. Mr. Martin moved to amend by allowing the sale of beer, and afterwards accepted an amendment by Mr. W. Grant on the same subject. Mr. Randall moved to amend by a substitute exempting native wine, beer, and cider, the defendant to be obliged to prove that they are native productions.

Mr Randall said, in offering this, that he came here unpledged to anybody, and at liberty to exercise his discretion as to the course which he should take. He was in favor of a prohibitory law, but he had received intimations which led him to believe that such a law would be vetoed, and hence he desired to pass a less stringent law, but one which would at least do something to stay the progress of the disease which was carrying down to the grave annually 30,000 people.

Mr Hull wished to define his position. He was against the principle of such a law, and yet was a friend of temperance, and drank nothing intoxicating. But he had experience in these matters, and believed that the use of beer and wine produced a longing for strong liquors. The proposition of Mr Randall was not a temperance measure. If we were to have a liquor law, he wanted the legislature to "go the whole hog." He appealed to some of the members of the House if they had not been intoxicated with beer, and had their heads ache by the use of Heidsieck. He saw that that the object of the movement was to conciliate the German vote. He had now exposed that object, and hoped that it would not be accomplished.

Mr Randall said that he was glad that the gentleman from Grant had made this discovery. It did not apply to him, as he asked no votes and no political favor from anybody. His reason for the proposition was simply that the Governor will not veto the bill if it does pass, and will veto it if it does not pass.

Mr Hull asked whether Mr R had any intimation from the Governor to that effect?

Mr Randall said that the friends of the Governor in Waukesha county were telling the Germans there that he would veto the bill if it did not exempt beer, and that he was ready to put himself at the head of a liquor party in the state.

Mr Hull replied that he was glad that the statement was only made on the authority of rumors from Waukesha county. He asked if other news of various kinds, in the shape of charges against the state officers, had not come from the same quarter, and if investigating committees had not been at work here for six weeks without finding anything to sustain those charges. He should stand by the officers of State where they are assailed without just cause. It was not proper to intimate that the Governor intended to veto a bill. If the Governor had so stated, it was sufficient to brand him with opprobrium.

Mr Randall said that he had not brought any charges against the Governor, but had mentioned the current rumor among his friends as a reason for the proposition brought forward by himself. The gentleman from Grant thinks it a disgraceful thing for the Governor to intimate in advance that he will veto a bill. Did he not know that twice already at this session, the Governor has sent in special messages threatening a veto if the Legislature shall pass bills of a nature named by him? If he would say this to the Legislature, it was still more probable that he would say it to his pet friends. As to the intimation that the Legislature had not yet obtained any proof of the charges of wrong doing on the part of the Administration, he would answer that proof had been obtained though all of the Committees had not yet reported. It had been found that the Governor had drawn $600 from the treasury for postage, when that amount was appropriated under an old law for both postage and clerkhire, which was repealed last winter. Another committee, (Lunatic Asylum) which had not yet reported, had yet gone far enough to prove that sundry officers of the Administration, members too of the Legislature last winter, had, under a law, which only authorized them to contract an expense of $22,500, gone on and contracted for a building to cost half a million, and that contract was approved by the Governor. In former sessions, committees have been appointed to investigate, but have only reported that "all looked well enough as far as they had had time to examine." There was no time during the session for a proper examination. The Lunatic Asylum Committee had been busy for 10 days, and could scarcely report for 10 days more. Do gentlemen want a report before the matter is examined? They had better wait till committees refuse or neglect to report, before they form their conclusions.

Mr. Hull briefly replied, that he intended to meet these reports fairly, and not to cover up any wrong doing; but if no wrong was discovered, he should do his best to sustain and vindicate the officers.

Mr Goodrich spoke briefly against the amendment.

Mr. Rose also took ground against it, because of the presumption which it proposed to make against the defendant.

The amendment was lost, and Mr. Martin's amendment was also lost.

On motion of Mr Welch, the Committee rose and reported the bill back to the Assembly favorably. The question being on concurring in the amendments Mr. Gary called for separate votes upon them.

At this stage, Mr. Downs offered a substitute for the whole bill (being the Ohio law, without the exception of beer, native wine, and cider.)

Mr. Goss moved the indefinite postponement of the whole subject, and supported his motion briefly.

Mr. Martin moved a recess to 3 P. M. Mr. P. H. Smith moved to adjourn. Lost, 13 to 61. Mr. Martin's motion was carried, by the friends of the bill.

On meeting in the afternoon, Mr. Martin immediately moved to adjourn, and the ayes and noes being called, the result was as follows:

Ayes: Abbott, Barns, Bennet, Bond, Boyd, Chase, Cary, Colby, Cross, De Wolf, Downs, Earnest, Ebbetts, Falvey, Filer, Gary, Gibb, Griffin, Gunn, Hoyt, Hull, Juneau, Lewis, Martin, McIndoe, Moscowitz, O'Neill, Ramsey, Randall, Ribble, Rogan, Rood, Ruan, Schwefel, Schrage, Sherman, B. Smith, P. H. Smith, Thompson, Vliet, White —41.

Noes: Adams, Allen, Delaney, Field, Fisher, Goodrich, Goodall, W. Grant, Harrington, Hollenbeck Howard, Ishow Judson, Kirkpatrick Ice, Love, Merriam, Merrill, Mosher, Parker, Pratt, A. Taylor, Virgin, Wakely, Warren, Welch, Wharry, Williston, Sholes—29.

So the Assembly adjourned. And the secret of it is in this, that there was to be a horse race on the ice, as a preliminary step to the organization of the "Wisconsin State Sporting Association," and those interested in the sport had promised the friends of the liquor bill that if they would let them off for this afternoon, they would cease all factious opposition to the perfection and passage of the bill. Hence the votes from that side of the Assembly for the adjournment. Cards of invitation for a select party at the Capitol House to-night, have been issued signed by Messrs J. H. Earnest, Wm. Hull and Judge Cothren and there will be a festive gathering there, at which I presume, the guests will be invited to try the Maine Law by using cold water exclusively; and then the Sporting Association will be organized "for the purpose of improving the breed of horses," and steps will be taken to prepare a course for summer races, the winter meeting to be held on the ice. It is expected that considerable money, to say nothing of other things, will be brought into the state by this enterprise.

Copper Ore.—We are told that two gentlemen are now at work in the old copper diggings near this place, and so far as present appearances indicate, are likely to make a profitable business of it. In drifting a few feet from the old range, they struck a new "lead," which yielded so bountifully, that in one day they took out over two thousand pounds of the purest quality of copper ore. At the present prices of ore, this is better than California wages, and what is better, the prospect is, that they may continue to do so for a long time yet.—[Mineral Point Tribune.

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS
OF DR. ALFRED L. CASTLEMAN,

PRESIDENT OF THE STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY,

Delivered in the Assembly Hall at Madison, Feb 1 1855.

Mr President and Gentlemen of the State Medical Society.

The human mind is ever emulous of high examples. Man fixes his eye on something above him, and his struggles to attain it constitute the chief history of his life.

When Cromwell buckled on his armor to defend the violated rights of his countrymen, the brightness of the example fixed the gaze of admiring masses. His success made him an object of their emulation. But having reached the first aim of his ambition, this same example is seen leading in another direction, and the eyes of the masses, fixed only on the man whom they would imitate, lose sight of the fact that they are being led to exchange a high-toned patriotism for military renown. Such is ever the case in politics,—and were it proper to allude to them,—our own times furnish more striking instances of the masses being led, by high examples, in the pursuit of political virtues, or being sunk to tolerate political vices.

In Religion we find the same tendency to follow after leaders. "Great was Diana of the Ephesians" and many and zealous were her followers. But a new religion was instituted. Pure, simple and impressive as were the truths of christianity, they were slowly received until the big examples of learned and noble men opened the hearts of the masses to an appreciation of the excellence. Then Diana of the Ephesians lost her power to control, and religious quackery yielded its power to the admiration of religious truth. And afterwards even this religion for a long time struggled with doubtful success against the influence of Voltaire's high example when he preached infidelity to France.

Nor is our code of Morals exempt from such an influence. Conduct which the world had held in abhorrence, was, by the high example of Catherine and Henry of Valois, rendered innocent recreation amongst the masses and the lower nobility, to be made again abhorrent by the precepts of Henry the Fourth.

'Tis unnecessary to multiply instances of this tendency of man to follow leaders. The very fashions of our dress and of our deportment, our business vocations, even our manner of worship, and our very thoughts are made amenable to this test of propriety.

On a former occasion, Mr. President, I was invited to address this Society on the subject of Medical Quackery and its Remedies. Ill health prevented my responding to the call. 'Tis my intention this evening briefly to invite your attention to that subject, basing my remarks on the illustrations I have just given.

Had Cromwell have been satisfied with abasing the perfidy of Charles, or Saul of Tarsus with attempting to prove the insufficiency of Diana as a Savior—had Catharine contented herself with railing at the Puritanical modesty which she displaced—or Henry with exclaiming against the immorality of Catherine and her Court, Charles could have laughed at the power of Cromwell—Diana would have continued the powerful Goddess, till the advent of a greater than Saul—Catharine could never have displaced, nor Henry restored the customs of their times. In each it was necessary to success that he should be, not the abuser of his enemy, but the qualified leader of his friends. The example and position of the leader is often more powerful than the justness of his cause.

Properly apply this aphorism to our profession and we have a remedy for quackery. But be not misled by the opinion that it is of easy application—we have strong prejudices to overcome—and often, before the physician is allowed to wear the laurels of learning, he must dearly win them. On the other hand the great evil of empiricism is fastened on community, and like the roots of a cancer, the more it is irritated the more rapidly it spreads. Living by our opposition, fattening on our abuse, revelling in our ridicule, it has gained the sympathy of the public—the sanction of our laws. Every attack upon it, but strengthens its vitality, and there is but one way left to arrest its growth—"let your light so shine before men, that they seeing your good works" may appreciate your superiority. Every individual who accomplishes this becomes an object of emulation and entitles himself to public gratitude.

But even more must be accomplished. A single breeze from the surface of a pure lake is insufficient to correct the miasm of surrounding marshes, so the example of a single individual is not always competent to correct the wayward current of public opinion. As the sources of the atmosphere must be purified, so must the fountains of our knowledge be pure. When a correct religion and morality are so taught as to pervade the minds of the mass, the moral atmosphere will be wholesome, and should infidelity or immorality exist there at all, it will be in a form so feeble that its flickerings of life will but prove the moral healthfulness of the climate and its incongeniality to vice.

From the existence of a firm, healthy, Executive government will emanate a political atmosphere, so pure that demagogueism can scarcely maintain even a sickly vitality, whilst in its absence, corruption and peculation infect every breath, and the whole body politic becomes diseased and bloated.

So Mr. President, must be kept pure the sources of our professional atmosphere. Schools must be established and their chairs filled with professors of high moral, as well as professional worth—by men who look more to the advancement of science and the good of community, than to the pecuniary profit of their investment—by professors, who will impress upon the student the important fact that quackery as often exists under cover of a diploma as under the dogmas of Thompsonism or the feeble vagaries of Hahnemann—that his diploma is less an honor to him, than an appeal from his alma mater that he will honor her.

Our Medical Societies must be kept up. We must each contribute his mite of knowledge to the general fund for the benefit of others, and these contributions must be published for the benefit of all.

But am I met with the objection that meetings cannot be held, our proceedings published, and Schools established and maintained without money? Gentlemen there is not in the Union a State with an educational fund so large in proportion to the objects calling for its investment, as that in which we live. We can not reach it? We have never tried. Brodie, one of our great leaders tells us that "a thorough determination to attain an object is the first step towards its attainment;" and I entertain a more liberal opinion of our Legislators and our University Regents than to suppose that when this great question is properly laid before them they will deny to us the small sum, necessary to place upon a footing of usefulness that branch of education on which depends the health, the happiness, the life—aye, all the dearest temporal interests of community.

If then, we would apply an effectual remedy to quackery, we should begin now by keeping not only ourselves qualified to "shine before men" but by laying a foundation for the proper qualification of those who are to succeed us in this important calling. Let every legislator be approached on this subject. First show him a few of the many inconsistencies of the Statute books. Point out to him the liberal provisions there made to protect us against the purchase of bad whiskey, whilst the lives and health, and often even the reputation of families are entrusted to the mercy of the ignorant and mercenary vendor of drugs and medicines—show him with what unrelenting severity he has provided for the punishment of him who, by counterfeiting the penny or the dime, would cheat us of a single farthing, whilst complacently he looks on, and provides no punishment for him who pretending to a knowledge of the deep mysteries of disease counterfeits the Physician and cheats us of our health and our lives.

But what claims can our profession urge to the protection and favor of the State?—Claims, the bare thought of which swells the bosom of every lover of our science with pride and exultation, and I love to recount them—While the States are paying their tens of thousands annually for the reports of their State Botanists Mineralogists, Geologists, and Naturalists with what pride do we compare their meagre products with those furnished to the world by our profession for no other price than the gratification of their own love of science and humanity.—For examples, it is unnecessary to go beyond the precincts of our own country, but I refer for botanical research to our Bigelows, Barton, Torrey, Short, Beck, Lee, Davis, Thompson, [illegible], Kirtland and many scores of others, whose works are the foundations of the reports of all our State botanists.

In Mineralogy I begin by a reference to the venerable Doct. Mitchill of New York, author of the Mineralogical History of New York and [illegible] of the first State Mineralogical Society founded [illegible] Atlantic—From the long list on this side of [illegible] show him I select of illustrious authors who [illegible] only the names of Emmons, Jackson, Silliman, Dana, Rogers, Ducatel, Locke, Owen, and our own Percival, any one of whom has done more for the science of Mineralogy, than all the State Mineralogists and Geologists as such since the offices were first created.—

But I pass to another and perhaps more important class of our claims. What has the profession done for the preservation of health and the prolongation of life?

In reviewing these, time will not permit us to dwell on the advantages resulting from Harvey's great discovery of the circulation of the blood—from that greater discovery by which Jenner disarmed the small pox of its terrors, nor from the many reforms which we have introduced in the practice of Hygiene; but it drives us on to the question—How far have all these discoveries and improvements so modified human suffering and added to the length of human life? Here again I appeal to the record, but must stop to acknowledge my indebtedness to Professor Clark of New York for much of the statistical information to prove how much the Science of Medicine has lengthened human life.

Revelation tells us that man was created perfect, and that death was not necessarily a consequence of his creation. He was to be governed by natural laws, for the transgression of which the penalty was death. He transgressed and died, but the term of his life was little short of a thousand years. The next era in his history is the reduction of that tenure—in consequence of his continued transgression—to an hundred and twenty years; and shortly after we learn that it was three score years and ten.

This rapid shortening of life brought alarm, and with it physicians, but they were then necessarily unlearned in the profession, and death with his unblunted scythe hurried on, and each year found him more eager for his victim, till in the beginning of the eighteenth century, as we find by the report of the Registrar General of Northampton, the average length of life was barely thirty years, whilst in 1847 the average was increased to 37½ years, or just one quarter was added to the length of human life. This is a single instance—it can be almost indefinitely multiplied. But let me impress on you the fact that this increase commenced about 150 years ago, the very moment at which our profession began to acquire facilities for the study of Anatomy and Physiology, or at which we first acquired any certain data on which to found a correct theory of disease. I proceed to examine the results from those facilities, and how well the profession has turned them to good account.

I have just shown then that in Northampton, the life of man was in a little more than one hundred years increased by the addition of just one quarter.

We now take a later period and find from Doct. Simpson's statistics of Surgery, that the rate of yearly mortality in England and Wales in 1786, was one in forty two of the entire population; that it was gradually reduced, so that in 1831 the proportion of deaths to population, was one in fifty-eight, adding more than a quarter to the length of life, in the short space of forty-seven years.

Mr. Milne, in his Life Tables of Carlisle, furnishes us about the same results there from 1775 to 1844—and the report of the Registrar General of England down to 1846, the latest I have been able to obtain, shows just about a like decrease in the mortality for each of the eight preceding years.

But in France, where every facility has been afforded for the advancement of the science and where medicine has for a long time been a State institution, the statistics show that the progress in lengthening man's life, is wonderful indeed. We are all, more or less acquainted with the history of that nation, from 1776 to 1813, during which time war, pestilence and wild fanaticism, vied with each other in the work of death when the mechanic arts were to their highest capability, inventing instruments of destruction; when the profession of law was made subservient to those in power in their crusade against human life—when even the sacred desk sent forth its mandates of death on the charge of heresy—when in addition, the dire scourge of cholera was sweeping off its hundreds of thousands annually, and every art and every science, save that of medicine, seemed combined to decimate the land one profession alone stood firm in the battle for humanity—and with what results! The combination of all the forces enumerated was insufficient to counteract the influence of our science on the longevity of man, and even during the 25 years, when France was one great battle field, the average of man's life was lengthened! Whilst of those who died a natural death, nearly one-half was added to the average term of their existence.

Thus far I have drawn only on Statistics from abroad, I pause but a moment to demonstrate that the results in our own land have not been less successful. In doing so, I shall take that view of it—the most unfavorable to us—where the struggle was directly with disease and death, leaving out all the indirect benefits of Hygiene, for which the world is wholly indebted to the profession.

The reports of the Pennsylvania Hospital at Philadelphia, show that in one hundred years, ending 1852, the reduction of the number of deaths proportioned to the number of sick, was nearly 30 in every hundred. In other words for every hundred who died in the early part of the century, thirty were restored to life and health in the latter part—and the New York Hospital reports show even better, for there we find, that in just half the time, the gain was 31 lives to the hundred, and yet these hospitals are in the same cities, on the same sites, are indeed the identical houses which were used in beginning of the century!—and with facts like these before the world, shall I be asked what claims we have on government—on community?

So much for the Profession, what can we say of its followers? Of those who toil to still further ameliorate the sufferings of their race, and to become in return the butt for all the gibes and sneers of those for whom they labor?

But first, Gentlemen of the Society, a word for you individually. I doubt whether there is one of you, who has not at times compared yourself with your professional brother, and in the comparison of moral virtues have felt your brother's inferiority; and I say it not in derogation but with pride, however much you may have admired his talents, his acquirements his manner, or his skill, you have wished that he possessed your humility, your kind sympathies, or your disinterested benevolence. In this Gentlemen, permit me to say that you err less in the appreciation of your own feelings than in the depreciation of his; for the very condition of our profession forbids the existence amongst us of the proud, the mercenary, or the heartless. The low estimate in which we, as a body, are held by our fellow men "crushes out" pride. The fact that ninety-nine hundredths of all medical men live and die in poverty, or are driven to other pursuits for a living, excludes the mercenary. Whilst the poorly paid labor, exposure, and danger of our practice, most effectually bars the door against all those who would follow the profession for the sake of the pay. Rest easy then as to our quiet and our negative virtues, whilst we examine the active and the positive.

Often are we called on to join the grand chorus of the song which commemorates the success of some man or company who by an iron chain have "connected in marriage the distant Waters" —often to join in hallelujah's of those who by the electric wires have "abridged time" and almost annihilated distance—often to sing pæans to the inventors of articles for man's profit and enjoyment, but never to whisper one word of honor, nor even of encouragement, for those who have added so vastly to man's capability to profit and enjoy.

Our claims can be properly appreciated only by comparing them with those of others.

No obstacles are ever allowed to stand between the physician and his duty to community—no hardship to deter—no danger to arrest him—From the dreadful hour when the plague stricken Athens witnessed the almost superhuman efforts of Hippocrates, struggling against the ravages of the most dreadful plague that ever scourged the earth, down to the days when the Cholera struck terror to the Armies in the Crimea, the physician has never faltered in his duty to encounter danger wherever it presented—Are you a sufferer from disease? Call on your physician, and tho' every step should rise from the earth the poisoned miasm, though every breath be charged with pestilence, the danger to himself, to his family, and friends are all forgotten, and you never call in vain.

When the first news of the Cholera advancing to our shores was announced scarcely a cheek was seen unblanched or a heart unterrified—It came—It visited New York—Who does not remember the sad account, that followed? Death in its most appalling forms to hundreds daily—the inhabitants terror-stricken deserting their homes till half the population of the city, having abandoned their friends unable to follow, were seeking safety in flight.

We all remember how the public journals painted the dreadful horrors of that time, and yet invoked some mightier power than pen or fancy to do Justice to the scene. But in the vivid recollection of all those horrors, one little circumstance has nearly escaped the memory—that, of the five hundred physicians in New York, five hundred physicians there remained, except as they dropped one by one into the insatiate jaws of death—that from all the Medical Schools then filled with students, not a student fled the city—they only flying which they did was from sufferer to sufferer, or from time to eternity.

How and by whom have their dangers and their deaths been commemorated? Had they been mariners, and cast themselves into the ocean to save a shipwrecked crew, their dangers would have been less, their sufferings shorter, but what of the public receptions, which would have followed, of the grand processions, of the presentations to perpetuate the memory of their noble deeds!

Few of us have forgotten the scenes of Sandusky in '49, when the stoutest hearts quailed before the appalling pestilence which desolated that doomed city—when it was impossible, in the language of the Mayor, "to describe the desolation which withered the hearts of the strongest. The havoc was awful, our physicians worn down by toil, and more exhausting cares were flying" —not as others from the city, but from place to place of suffering and of danger—" and he continues "[illegible] not a little to the meritoriousness [illegible] compensation from the [illegible] of their services that [illegible] I should [illegible] town and the poor was declined." [illegible] do injustice, should I pass over the fact that in this instance, there was one at least who could appreciate the noble, self-sacrificing men who there stood between the living and the dead. For, concludes the Mayor, "though the citizen of Sandusky cannot find words to express his gratitude, he can thank God that his lot is cast where christian charities grow and flourish, and he can invoke God's best blessings on those who remembered him in the days of his sore distress."

We remember New Orleans a few years back when the yellow fever struck such terror to the souls of men that of all those who could leave the City, the physicians alone remained.

Savannah too affords a striking illustration of the disinterestedness of our profession—when terror and death had relieved her of two thirds of her population—when the dying and the dead, the putrid and the living lay mingled together, and the boldest could not summon courage to venture on the separation, even here the physician never abandoned his post but sank under the duties which his benevolence demanded. Twas then, that their brothers from abroad were summoned to their assistance. Mobile was called on, and tho' her physicians had barely rallied from the arduous duties which the prevalence of the pestilence there had imposed on them, yet not an hour was lost, and as one platoon sank before the dreadful scourge, another stepped into its place undismayed, unabating in energy, till health was restored to the city.

Even now a scene is transpiring illustrative of the character of medical men and of their appreciation by the public:

In the Crimea, the demon of War is at work. There stand Britain's oft tried heroes, calm and undaunted amid the dangers of the battle, and every English heart throbs with pride for the valor of her leaders. But at a short distance is a more fearful struggle—there the soldier in the vigor of life is stricken down by a hand he cannot see, an enemy he cannot resist. There the physician fights the soldier's battle, and the very sight of his boldest danger sends dismay to the heart of the hero whom the perils of twenty battles have failed to move. For one month before the last reports not a British officer had courage to look for a moment on that scene of desolation and death where the physician made his home.

But when Sebastopol shall have fallen—when the Mussleman and the Christian shall have marched together over the land of the Cossack—when Moscow shall have crumbled before the machinery of War, and hundreds of thousands of Russian citizens shall have slaked with their blood the ambition of the Saxon and the Gaul—when England's vengeance shall be glutted, and her glory borne to Heaven on the wailings of ten thousand of her own widows and orphans—then will be had the "triumphal entry" of England's benefactors—of the heroes who saved "their country!" But in that grand procession, what place, think you, will be assigned to the physician?—No matter! He deserves no place of mark—no expressions of a nation's gratitude for whilst the leader has been most gloriously butchering his country's enemies, the physician has been content with the humble and menial occupation of quietly saving her friends!

I repeat that it is our duty, to relieve the community from the curse of quackery—that to do this we must leave off our abuse of it—that by our high example we must excite the empiric to become the man of science—that we must make this reform permanent by providing such facilities for a proper scientific education, as shall create about us an atmosphere incongenial to imposture and empiricism—that we shall demand of community the means to enable us to provide such facilities—that we shall base these demands on the benefits we are constantly conferring on community, and by our sacrifices in its behalf.

Sir, permit me before closing to advert to some of the circumstances of the past year, and to say that much as we have accomplished, much more remains for us to do.

Whilst the dire accidents by flood and fire have filled the land with loud and bitter moanings, the effects of the pestilence which has swept over our state has so absorbed our attention and our sympathies, and presented to us so pointedly the fact of our inability in many instances to wrestle successfully with the mysteries of disease, as greatly to have closed our ears to the wailings from abroad. We have seen the pestilence seize upon our friends—we have in many instances found ourselves wholly incapable of arresting for a moment the progress of the disease—we have seen Death snatch his victim from us as uninterruptedly in his progress as though we had not been there to interpose. I hope that no member of this society in such cases allowed himself to be satisfied with the reflection that the result was one of God's providences, but that he more properly attributed it to his own ignorance of the nature and character of the pestilence, and that he determined not to be satisfied till he had fully unravelled the mystery.

But Death stopped not with our patients—he entered our own ranks, and selected as his victims two of the brightest ornaments of our profession—Dr. A P Ladd and Professor S. Pearl Lathrop. They each have left for us a bright example of their devotion to the advancement of education; and of a willingness to meet cheerfully the dangers of our profession, for the benefit of our race.

In closing, permit me, Gentlemen, to congratulate you on the fact that so much of harmony and good feeling has prevailed amongst us during our existence as a society, and to hope that in our efforts to elevate the standard of our professional attainments, the bonds of common interest which bind us together as a brotherhood, will also be thrown around us in the social circle, and that whilst we remember with profit the benefits resulting from our meetings, as a society, the recollections of our social intercourse may be as bright spots to cheer us through the darkness of our declining years.

Mr President, permit me sir, to congratulate you on your accession to the honorable position to which you have just been chosen, for I cannot well imagine a more honorable station than that of presiding over the deliberations of men engaged in the benevolent purpose of alleviating the sufferings of their fellow beings, and, aside from your success in the pursuit of the great objects of our association, I can express no higher wish for your official gratification than that the members of this society may accord to you the same generous support and liberal construction of motives, which I most gratefully acknowledge as having been extended to me during my official term, which closes with the performance of this duty.

The Truth of History.

Amongst other charges brought against Senator Seward, to defeat his re-election, was one alleging that he did not sincerely support Mr Clay in the canvass of 1844. This has brought to light, the following letter from the sage of Ashland:

Ashland, Nov. 20, 1844.

My Dear Sir: I duly received the two letters which you did me the favor to address to me; one written immediately after the interview of Mr. Lee, of Maryland, with you, and the other on the 7th inst, after the termination of the Presidential election in the State of New York. I feel greatly obliged by your prompt attention to my request communicated through Mr. Lee.

Throughout this whole political campaign, I have never doubted your good intentions, and have been constantly persuaded of your having employed your best exertions.

The sad result of the contest is now known. It is also irreversible, and we are only left to deplore that so good a cause, sustained by so many good men, has been defeated—defeated, too, by a combination of the most extraordinary adverse circumstances that perhaps ever before occurred. But it is now useless and unavailing to speculate upon the causes of the unfortunate issue of the contest. We are also too much under the excitement which it produced, and under depression created by that issue, calmly and deliberately to look through the gloom which hangs over the future. It will be time enough to do that after public has recovered from the disappointment which it has just experienced.

As for myself, it would be folly to deny that I feel the severity of the blow most intensely. I feel it for myself, but unless my heart deceives me, I feel it still more for my country and my friends. I had hoped to have been an humble instrument in the hand of Providence, to arrest the downward tendency of Government. I had hoped to have had it in my power to do justice to those able, valuable and virtuous friends who have been so long and cruelly proscribed and persecuted. But it has been otherwise decreed, and my duty now is that of resignation, and submission, cherishing the hope that some others, more fortunate than myself, may yet arise to accomplish that which I have not been allowed to effect. You are in the prime of life, endowed with great ability, and I trust that you will long be spared, in health and prosperity, to render great and good service to our common country.

Such will continue to be the prayer of your friend and obedient servant, H. CLAY.

Wm. H. Seward, Esq.

P. S.—I write by the hand of a son who acts as my amanuensis, upon my dictation. H. C.

Pennsylvania Senator—Election Postponed. The two Houses of the Pennsylvania Legislature met in joint convention, for the third time, on Thursday last, to elect a Senator. Three ballots were taken, Gen. Cameron, Know-nothing Democrat, receiving 56 votes (66 being necessary to elect) to 23 for Buchanan, and the rest scattering. After the last ballot, a motion was made to adjourn till the first Tuesday in October next, and this motion prevailed, by the close vote of 66 yeas to 65 nays. So that the choice of a U. S. Senator goes over to the next Legislature, and Gen. Simon Cameron's exchange of "Democracy" for "Know-Nothingism" turns out to be an unprofitable investment.

Milwaukee City Bonds.—The N. Y. Tribune of the 24th instant contains the following announcement:

The semi-annual coupons on the bonds of the City of Milwaukee, issued to the Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago Railroad Co., due 1st March, will be paid at No. 62 Wall st., by C. R. Scofield.

Damages for Breach of Promise.—The suit of Mary Smith vs. George Chackafield for breach of promise which has occupied the Court of Common Pleas and filled it to overflowing for two days, was decided yesterday by the rendition of a verdict of $1,500 for the plaintiff. A motion for a new trial was entered. The defendant was a widower with children, is now married, and is worth about $5,000.—[Chicago Dem. Press.

CITY MATTERS.

Police Court--March 1st.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH ESQ. POLICE JUSTICE

A man named John Hartman, was tried for an alleged assault and battery upon Henry Wanderer found not guilty and was discharged.

Charles Steinbess was arrested on a charge of assault and battery upon Charles Miller, Jr., a boy between six and seven years of age. The witnesses brought in to substantiate the charge were two little girls, one nine years, the other about six years of age. Both children were examined as to the nature of an oath, neither understanding the requisites of witnesses, the boy was then offered, to prove the assault and battery, when the Court remarked that he "didn't think he should be justified in putting such children under oath, their age didn't seem to warrant it, they might, if sworn tell the truth, but if they didn't they could not be held legally accountable, he must discharge the defendant."

Democratic City Convention.

The Sham Democracy held their Convention to nominate candidates for City Officers yesterday afternoon, Mayor Kilbourn in the Chair. On the first ballot for Mayor Mr. J. B. Cross received 13 votes, Mr. H. L. Page 6, and Mr. J. B. Martin 5—and Mr. Cross was nominated.—Messrs J. B. Edwards and F. Kuehn the present Comptroller and Treasurer, were re-nominated without a ballot; and Mr. E. Foote, for City Attorney, on the 4th ballot, by one majority.—For Marshal, the race was close between the present incumbent, John Mitchell, and his old competitor, Tim. O'Brien. The latter won the day by a single vote, 13 to 12. Clinton Walworth was, by common consent, re-nominated for Police Justice.

The ticket is a weak one and can be beaten if the Tax-Payers and Business Men of our City see fit to make the necessary effort.

Circuit Court.—The jury, in the case of the State vs. Charles Zeatio, on trial for larceny in a dwelling house, failing to agree, were discharged, after being out about six hours. We understand that they stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal.

The trial of Edward Fassbinder, for murder was commenced about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Milwaukee & Watertown R. R.—The business over this road for the short month of February has been very good. The receipts thus foot up—

For passengers,	$1323 10
For freight,	4 68 12
Total,	$5 91 22

Being an average of nearly $230 per day. The receipts for January were $4578 14—so that February shows a handsome increase.

This road is only opened, as yet, as far as Oconomowoc, 33 miles from this city; but will be extended to Watertown, 12 miles further in the course of the next four months. Yesterday, the indefatigable President, Dr. James Johnson, sold $4,000 of its first mortgage bonds to Mr. Quentin, for European parties, at 80 cents.

Bayard Taylor's Lecture.—Young's Hall was again densely crowded last night to hear Bayard Taylor's Lecture. The renowned traveller was listened to with marked attention; the audience evidently delighted in hearing the "Philosophy of Travel," philosophically described, by a peripatetic philosopher.

Fifth Ward.—The Democracy of the Fifth Ward, at their caucus on Thursday evening, nominated the following ticket:

Henry Millman, Alderman for two years.
Charles Johnson, Alderman for one year.
W. W. Yale, Assessor.
C. Charles Mayer, Constable.
Carlton Holland, Railroad Commissioner.

We understand that Captain James Humphrey received the plurality of the votes cast for Alderman for 2 years; but was "ruled out" by the Chairman, as not the right kind of a Democrat. From this decision Capt. Humphrey appeals to the Electors of the Ward, and we rather think they will reverse it at the polls.

Third Ward.—James Reed and Patrick O'Donnell are Independent Candidates for Aldermen in the Third Ward, and would make good ones.

Candidate for Marshal.—J. McD. Smith the popular Landlord of the Milwaukee House, is an Independent candidate for City Marshal, and would make a very good one.

Mr. J. B. Smith's New Vessel.—The types yesterday reduced the keel of J. B. Smith's new vessel, which Capt. Barber is building, to 52 feet. We wrote and the paragraph should have read, 82 feet.

Independent Nominations in Detroit.—The electors of Detroit, without distinction of party, have nominated Henry P. Baldwin, for Mayor, Jeramiah Van Rensselaer, for Recorder, Wm Jennison; for City Attorney, N B Carpenter, for Treasurer, and W. H. Barse, for Marshal.—The Tribune says:

The nominations were the unanimous choice of the Committee, and were confirmed by the Convention by acclamation. The ticket is one of the best, if not the very best, ever nominated in this city, and will be triumphantly elected. The City Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity by men of all parties, who evinced their approval of the ticket by three hearty cheers.

Why can't we get up and elect such a ticket in Milwaukee?

For the Daily Sentinel.

A Call for Information.

Messrs. Editors:—At the close of the years 1852 and 1853 following the adoption of the new City Charter, the aldermen of the 1st Ward then in office prepared and published a statement of the financial condition of the Ward, showing the amount of taxes levied for Ward purposes, and also the specific disbursements, to whom and for what purposes paid. Now I would suggest to the present alderman of that Ward, as they are all in for a re-election, that it would be proper for them, at the close of the year 1854, to give us tax-payers an account of their stewardship in a like manner. This is more important from the fact that the assessment roll of the ward is largely increased, being more than one million of dollars, and the one per cent levied for Ward purposes exceeding ten thousand dollars. To this amount should be added the unexpended surplus of 1853, being about twenty five hundred dollars, making the total amount of Ward funds subject to their control Twelve Thousand Five Hundred Dollars at least. It is quite important, therefore, for the persons who contribute to furnish this fund for public improvements, to know how, and where this large amount of money has been expended, and to whom it has been paid. Hints have been thrown out by the knowing ones, that pretty much of the whole fund has been sliced out among certain contractors, for street and other work, at most enormous and extravagant prices, with a view to carry the election of the present incumbents this year.

A full and explicit statement of the Ward expenditures for the past year, will aid us very much in our conclusions, whether it is for our interest to go in for the present incumbents or not. Let us have it if you dare!

MANY TAX PAYERS.

A Wonderful Discovery has recently been made by Dr Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma and all diseases of the lungs. We refer to "Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which, he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment a physician remarks:—It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists throughout the country.—New York Dutchman, Jan 14th

Dr. Castleman's Address

[illegible] this morning the able and [illegible] by Dr A L Castleman, of [illegible] at the recent annual meeting of the [illegible] It is an eloquent and [illegible] the claims of the Medical [illegible] opinion and generous [illegible] It is too, a clear expo[illegible] to meet and overcome [illegible] that medical schools [illegible] Wisconsin, instead of sending [illegible] profes[illegible] can be taught as well at home, [illegible] such schools and the effect of such [illegible] would con[illegible] to arrest the growth of [illegible] and save the people from be[illegible] quacks.

The City Post Office.

We [illegible] a day or two since, in answer to the [illegible] of the Wisconsin against the City Postmaster for refusing to en[illegible] and against its contemporaries of the city press for declining to unite in its [illegible] that the Sentinel had long before [illegible] attention to this very matter [illegible] had made the necessary arrangements for increasing the accomodations [illegible] by the 1st of April. The Wisconsin [illegible] question this state[illegible] take to itself the exclusive credit [illegible] the Postmaster into this Post-office enlargement. A very few words will suffice [illegible] that this, like all else uttered by the [illegible] the subject, is both false and foolish.

The present P. M., on receiving his appointment, found the office where it is now located; and we are authorized and requested by Mr. Wm. A. [illegible] the owner and lessee of the premises [illegible] very soon after taking possession [illegible] applied to him for the lease of the [illegible] store [illegible] a view of enlarging the office [illegible] store was under lease to other [illegible] May, 1856, and though Mr [illegible] efforts to obtain it, he failed [illegible] until very recently. The addition [illegible] store will make the City Post Office [illegible] convenient. It will be fitted [illegible] the lease, fixtures and [illegible] amounting to $1,000. It only remains [illegible] at the day before the Wisconsin [illegible] appeared, the architect had completed his plans and the carpenters were making their estimates, for the proposed P. O. enlargement. Thus it will be seen that more than [illegible] before the Wisconsin had anything [illegible] the subject, the Postmaster had repeatedly attempted to procure additional room, and that the enlargement at length provided for, is [illegible] what Mr Noonan proposed nearly two years [illegible] has neither been expedited, or [illegible] by the incessant din which the [illegible] kept up.

Cour[illegible] Current.—It is currently reported that Marshal [illegible] who has recently returned from [illegible] Washington [illegible] not meet with [illegible] there that the Dough[illegible] to have expected. Uncle Sam [illegible] willed enough, and somewhat [illegible] and action about [illegible] to pick a quarrel with one of his [illegible] children Wisconsin [illegible] gallantly in defence of those [illegible] Republican franchises the writ of Habeas Corpus and the Right of Trial by Jury.

[illegible] La Crosse Rail Road, [illegible].—We learn from Mr Cleveland that he has already made arrangements with Messrs [illegible] McLaughlin for all the grading [illegible] Horicon, and with Messrs [illegible] for all that part [illegible] between this city and Hartford. The community knowing [illegible] responsibility of both these firms [illegible] their having the road in readiness for [illegible] in the fall [illegible] without any mistake.

Issue in Senator.—Gov. Matteson, of Illinois, refuses to sign Judge Trumbull's certificate of election as U. S. Senator from Illinois. He bases his refusal on the ground that the Judge is not eligible under the clause of the Constitution which prohibits any Judge of the Supreme Court from accepting any other office during the term for which he was elected Judge, nor for one year after the expiration of such term. Judge Trumbull has resigned the office of Judge, but the term for which he was elected is not yet expired.

It is also said that the Governor refuses to give a certificate to [illegible] of the 9th District upon similar grounds.

We do not suppose that the giving or withholding of a "certificate" by a Governor, determines the question of a Senator's or Representative's election. The People, by themselves or their Legislature, choose their Representatives in Congress, and all that the Governor is asked [illegible] is to certify to the result. If he [illegible] to do this, the Senate and House of Representatives will undoubtedly admit the members elect to their seats without the Executive certificate.

Life [illegible] at a Fire.—At the recent destruction by fire of Ferris & Boyd's manufactory in Chicago, Mr Joseph H. Arnold, the Assistant Foreman lost his life in the flames. It was not known that he had perished, till the day after the fire, when the rumor that he was missing led to an examination of the ruins and among the still smoking [illegible] his charred remains were found. It is supposed that he had gone into the burning building to get out a chest of tools, and that the rapid spread of the flames cut off his retreat. He was a native of Vermont, 44 years old, and leaves a wife and three children in comfortable circumstances.

Political [illegible].—A County Mass Meeting of all persons opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise and in favor of the principles of the Republican Party as organized in this State, is to be held at Blake's Hall, Port Washington, to-morrow, the 3d instant, for business purposes.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL.

Madison, Feb. 28.

Soon after the opening of the Senate this morning, the resolution introduced yesterday by Mr. Reymert was taken up. It reads as follows:

Whereas, the investigation of the administration of the State affairs, after a session of seven weeks, has not bro't to light any fraud, corruption or wrong commited by any public officer. And whereas, the public interests demand a speedy and thorough exposition of the manner in which the state officers have discharged their responsible duties: therefore,

Resolved, That the several committees to whom any subject may have been referred for investigation, be requested to use all reasonable diligence to report at as early a day as practicable the result of their inquiries, in order either to condemn or acquit the officers of the grave charges brought against them, and thus relieving the public of suspense and bringing the session to a speedy close.

This resolution is regarded as an effort of the combined and concentrated wisdom of the State Administration, and is only another step in the bluff game which they have been playing. It has evidently been boiled down from half a dozen of the Democrat's leading editorials.

On its being read this morning, Mr. Wakely moved to postpone it indefinitely. Mr. Reymert defended it faintly as necessary to vindicate the State officers from the charges against them.

Mr Taylor next took the floor and for about three quarters of an hour devoted himself with ability and earnestness to a most scathing rebuke of the course of the Administration, and showed by facts and figures already before the Legislature that something at least, had already been done towards investigation. We shall doubtless have a report of this speech, and it should be widely circulated among the people.—On its conclusion, the vote was taken, and the preamble and resolution indefinitely postponed, by the following vote:

Ayes; Adams, Bashford, Bowen, Clement, Cobb, Gill, Giles, Harvey, Paddock, Rolfe, Sutherland, Taylor, Wakely, West, Worthington—15.

Noes, Dewey, Dunn, Eldredge, Gibson, Kelly, Moiarty, Reymert—7.

☞ If the above resolutions had passed the Senate, we should have have had a general shout of joy from the Barstow organs at the "vindication" of the State Administration. Inasmuch as the resolutions were killed, two to one, is it not fair to conclude ——— but the subject is a tender one.

Bills were introduced:

By Mr Harvey, repealing the act extending the time for paying interest on school lands.

By Mr Bowen, charter of Dodge Co. Iron and Steel Co.

By Mr Eldridge, for docketing judgments in vacation.

By Mr Gill, for election of Register in Washington Co. (Rules suspended and passed.)

By Mr Loy, to add more election districts in Oconto and Door counties—passed.

By Mr Gibson, charter of St Croix Bridge Co.

The list of bills passed has already gone to you, except the names of those to whom appropriations were made. I supply them here:

S S Conover, the sheriff of Rock Co, S Chapman, S VanBergen, W S Main, D Monson, V W Roth, J G Henning, D S Durrie, A S Wood, S Mills, W E Cramer, M Martin.

A Message from the Governor was read, giving his reasons for pardoning various convicts from the State Prison.

Take things altogether, the Senate did a very good morning's work.

In Assembly, 9 A. M.

Petitions were presented:

By Mr Gunn, for liquor law.

By Mr Isham, for do

By Mr Goodrich, from Free Will Baptist Conference for liquor law.

By Mr P H Smith, for a grant of swamp lands to aid a road in Oconto Co.

A communication was read from nine persons in Dane County Jail, ascribing their condition to the sale and use of liquor, and praying for a prohibitory law.

Resolutions:

By Mr Downs, to meet at 2½ P. M. to-morrow and hereafter, and to work on the general file of bills—Adopted.

By Mr Gary, calling on the Governor as to whether the plats of the swamp lands have been received from the General Government, so as to give the State a title to the lands—Adopted. (It seems quite proper that before much time is spent in legislating concerning these lands, the State should have a title to them.)

By Mr Earnest, with a "Whereas" reciting the defenceless condition of this country in these warlike times, and instructing Mr Thompson, the Chairman of the Militia Committee, to have 1000 copies of the 270th section Militia Bill securely bound. No action was taken on this important proposition.

Bills introduced:

By Mr A Taylor, to protect the lives of persons in certain cases. (It makes Companies liable to the heirs of persons killed by negligence or carelessness.)

By Mr Delany, to amend sec 2 of an act relative to Railroad Companies.

By Mr Rogan, to amend charter of Watertown.

By Mr Earnest, to vacate certain alleys in Shullsburg.

Among the Reports of Committees:

Mr. Randall, from Judiciary Committee, reported against bill raising the salary of judges and in favor of bills for filing transcript of justices' judgments, for amending mechanics' lien law, for allowing county orders to be received in payment for lands at tax sales, and for exempting from toll persons on the way to and from church on Sundays.

Mr Van Nostrand, from joint select committee, reported to pay the Sergeants-at-Arms $3 00 each. Postmasters ditto, other assistants $3 00 each and messengers $2 00 each.

Mr P H Smith, from select committee reported a bill to alter the usury laws so as to forfeit the interest only, instead of both principal and interest.

Mr Virgin moved to suspend the rules to pass the bill for the purchase of 1500 copies of Webster's unabridged dictionary for schools. (The bill provides for paying $4 00 per copy, to be paid half in 1856 and the remainder in 1857, out of the library money of the School fund of the several towns.) The House refused to suspend the rules.

Mr. Field moved to take up the special order the Temperance Bill—carried, and Mr. Orton resumed the chair, in committee of the whole.

Several amendments were adopted, and more voted down. Among the former, was one allowing the arrest of drunkards and compelling them to testify as to where they got the "creature," and another providing that a search of dwelling houses for liquor for private use shall not be allowed.

Among those voted down were the following:

Allowing the manufacture of liquor.

Allowing the sale to continue till all the liquor now in the state be disposed of.

Allowing more time for disposal of liquor, the property of estates of deceased persons.

Allowing the manufacture and sale of beer, native wine and cider.

On this last the only debate of the morning arose. Mr. Martin moved to amend by allowing the sale of beer, and afterwards accepted an amendment by Mr. W. Grant on the same subject. Mr. Randall moved to amend by a substitute exempting native wine, beer, and cider, the defendant to be obliged to prove that they are native productions.

Mr Randall said, in offering this, that he came here unpledged to anybody, and at liberty to exercise his discretion as to the course which he should take. He was in favor of a prohibitory law, but he had received intimations which led him to believe that such a law would be vetoed, and hence he desired to pass a less stringent law, but one which would at least do something to stay the progress of the disease which was carrying down to the grave annually 30,000 people.

Mr Hull wished to define his position. He was against the principle of such a law, and yet was a friend of temperance, and drank nothing intoxicating. But he had experience in those matters, and believed that the use of beer and wine produced a longing for strong liquors. The proposition of Mr Randall was not a temperance measure. If we were to have a liquor law, he wanted the legislature to "go the whole hog." He appealed to some of the members of the House if they had not been intoxicated with beer, and had their heads ache by the use of Heidseck. He saw that that the object of the movement was to conciliate the German vote. He had now exposed that object, and hoped that it would not be accomplished.

Mr Randall said that he was glad that the gentleman from Grant had made this discovery. It did not apply to him, as he asked no votes and no political favor from anybody. His reason for the proposition was simply that the Governor will not veto the bill if it does pass, and will veto it if it does not pass.

Mr Hull asked whether Mr R had any intimation from the Governor to that effect?

Mr Randall said that the friends of the Governor in Waukesha county were telling the Germans there that he would veto the bill if it did not exempt beer, and that he was ready to put himself at the head of a liquor party in the state.

Mr Hull replied that he was glad that the statement was only made on the authority of rumors from Waukesha county. He asked if other news of various kinds, in the shape of charges against the state officers, had not come from the same quarter, and if investigating committees had not been at work here for six weeks without finding anything to sustain those charges. He should stand by the officers of State where they are assailed without just cause. It was not proper to intimate that the Governor intended to veto a bill. If the Governor had so stated, it was sufficient to brand him with opprobrium.

Mr Randall said that he had not brought any charges against the Governor, but had mentioned the current rumor among his friends as a reason for the proposition brought forward by himself. The gentleman from Grant thinks it a disgraceful thing for the Governor to intimate in advance that he will veto a bill. Did he not know that twice already at this session, the Governor has sent in special messages threatening a veto if the Legislature shall pass bills of a nature named by him? If he would say this to the Legislature, it was still more probable that he would say it to his pet friends. As to the intimation that the Legislature had not yet obtained any proof of the charges of wrong doing on the part of the Administration, he would answer that proof had been obtained though all of the Committees had not yet reported. It had been found that the Governor had drawn $600 from the treasury for postage, when that amount was appropriated under an old law for both postage and clerkhire, which was repealed last winter. Another committee, (Lunatic Asylum) which had not yet reported, had yet gone far enough to prove that sundry officers of the Administration, members too of the Legislature last winter, had, under a law, which only authorized them to contract an expense of $22,300, gone on and contracted for a building to cost half a million, and that contract was approved by the Governor. In former sessions, committees have been appointed to investigate, but have only reported that "all looked well enough as far as they had had time to examine." There was no time during the session for a proper examination. The Lunatic Asylum Committee had been busy for 10 days, and could scarcely report for 10 days more. Do gentlemen want a report before the matter is examined? They had better wait till committees refuse or neglect to report, before they form their conclusions.

Mr. Hall briefly replied, that he intended to meet these reports fairly, and not to cover up any wrong doing; but if no wrong was discovered, he should do his best to sustain and vindicate the officers.

Mr Goodrich spoke briefly against the amendment.

Mr. Rose also took ground against it, because of the presumption which it proposed to make against the defendant.

The amendment was lost, and Mr. Martin's amendment was also lost.

On motion of Mr Welch, the Committee rose and reported the bill back to the Assembly favorably. The question being on concurring in the amendments Mr. Gary called for separate votes upon them.

At this stage, Mr. Downs offered a substitute for the whole bill (being the Ohio law, without the exception of beer, native wine, and cider.)

Mr. Gess moved the indefinite postponement of the whole subject, and supported his motion briefly.

Mr. Martin moved a recess to 3 P. M. Mr. P. H. Smith moved to adjourn. Lost, 13 to 51. Mr. Martin's motion was carried, by the friends of the bill.

On meeting in the afternoon, Mr. Martin immediately moved to adjourn, and the ayes and noes being called, the result was as follows:

Ayes: Abbott, Barns, Bennet, Bood, Boyd, Close, Cary, Colby, Cross, De Wolf, Downs, Earnest, Ebbetts, Falvey, Filer, Gary, Gibb, Griffin, Gunn, Hoyt, Hull, Juneau, Lewis, Martin, McIndoe, Moscowitz, O'Neill, Ramsey, Randall, Ribble, Rogan, Rood, Rusn, Schwefel, Schraze, Sherman, D. Smith, P. H. Smith, Thompson, Vliet, White—41.

Noes: Adams, Allen, Delaney, Field, Fisher, Goodrich, Goodall, W. Grant, Harrington, Hollenbeck Howard, Isham Judson, Kirkpatrick Lee Love, Merriam, Merrill, Mosher, Parker, Pratt, A. Taylor, Virgin, Wakely, Warren, Welch, Whitney, Williston, Sholes—29.

So the Assembly adjourned. And the secret of it is this, that there was to be a horse race on the ice, as a preliminary step to the organization of the "Wisconsin State Sporting Association," and those interested in the sport had promised the friends of the liquor bill that if they would let them off for this afternoon, they would cease all factious opposition to the perfection and passage of the bill. Hence the votes from that side of the Assembly for the adjournment. Cards of invitation for a select party at the Capitol House to-night, have been issued signed by Messrs J. H. Earnest, Wm. Hull and Judge Orthren, and there will be a festive gathering there, at which I presume, the guests will be invited to try the Maine Law by using cold water exclusively; and then the Sporting Association will be organized "for the purpose of improving the breed of horses," and steps will be taken to prepare a course for summer races, the winter meeting to be held on the ice. It is expected that considerable money, to say nothing of other things, will be brought into the state by this enterprise.

Copper Ore.—We are told that two gentlemen are now at work in the old copper diggings near this place, and so far as present appearances indicate, are likely to make a profitable business of it. In drifting a few feet from the old range, they struck a new "lead," which yielded so bountifully, that in one day they took out over two thousand pounds of the purest quality of copper ore. At the present prices of ore, this is better than California wages, and what is better, the prospect is, that they may continue to do so for a long time yet.—[Mineral Point Tribune.

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS

OF DR. ALFRED L. CASTLEMAN,

PRESIDENT OF THE STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY,

Delivered in the Assembly Hall at Madison, Feb 1 1855.

Mr President and Gentlemen of the State Medical Society:

The human mind is ever emulous of high examples. Man fixes his eye on something above him, and his struggles to attain it constitute the chief history of his life.

When Cromwell buckled on his armor to defend the violated rights of his countrymen, the brightness of the example fixed the gaze of admiring masses. His success made him an object of their emulation. But having reached the first aim of his ambition, this same example is seen leading in another direction, and the eyes of the masses, fixed only on the man whom they would imitate, lose sight of the fact that they are being led to exchange a high-toned patriotism for military renown. Such is ever the case in politics,—and were it proper to allude to them,—our own times furnish more striking instances of the masses being led, by high examples, in the pursuit of political virtue, or being sunk to tolerate political vices.

In Religion we find the same tendency to follow after leaders. "Great was Diana of the Ephesians" and many and zealous were her followers. But a new religion was instituted. Pure, simple and impressive as were the truths of christianity, they were slowly received until the big examples of learned and noble men opened the hearts of the masses to an appreciation of the excellence. Then Diana of the Ephesians lost her power to control, and religious quackery yielded its power to the admiration of religious truth. And afterwards even this religion for a long time struggled with doubtful success against the influence of Voltaire's high example when he preached infidelity to France.

Nor is our code of Morals exempt from such an influence. Conduct which the world had held in abhorrence, was, by the high example of Catherine and Henry of Valois, rendered innocent recreation amongst the masses and the lower nobility, to be made again abhorrent by the precepts of Henry the Fourth.

'Tis unnecessary to multiply instances of this tendency of man to follow leaders. The very fashions of our dress and of our deportment, our business vocations, even our manner of worship, and our very thoughts are made amenable to this test of propriety.

On a former occasion, Mr. President, I was invited to address this Society on the subject of Medical Quackery and its Remedies. Ill health prevented my responding to the call. 'Tis my intention this evening briefly to invite your attention to that subject, basing my remarks on the illustrations I have just given.

Had Cromwell have been satisfied with abusing the perfidy of Charles, or Saul of Tarsus with attempting to prove the insufficiency of Diana as a Savior—had Catharine contented herself with railing at the Puritanical modesty which she displaced—or Henry with exclaiming against the immorality of Catherine and her Court, Charles could have laughed at the power of Cromwell—Diana would have continued the powerful Goddess, till the advent of a greater than Saul—Catharine could never have displaced, nor Henry restored the customs of their times. In each it was necessary to success that he should be, not the abuser of his enemy, but the qualified leader of his friends. The example and position of the leader is often more powerful than the justness of his cause.

Properly apply this aphorism to our profession and we have a remedy for quackery. But be not misled by the opinion that it is of easy application—we have strong prejudices to overcome—and often, before the physician is allowed to wear the laurels of learning, he must doubly win them. On the other hand the great evil of empiricism is fastened on community, and like the roots of a cancer, the more it is irritated the more rapidly it spreads. Living by our opposition, fattening on our abuse, revelling in our ridicule, it has gained the sympathy of the public—the sanction of our laws. Every attack upon it, but strengthens its vitality, and there is but one way left to arrest its growth—"let your light so shine before men, that they seeing your good works" may appreciate your superiority. Every individual who accomplishes this becomes an object of emulation and entitles himself to public gratitude.

But even more must be accomplished. A single breeze from the surface of a pure lake is insufficient to correct the miasm of surrounding marshes, so the example of a single individual is not always competent to correct the wayward current of public opinion. As the sources of the atmosphere must be purified, so must the fountains of our knowledge be pure. When a correct religion and morality are so taught as to pervade the minds of the mass, the moral atmosphere will be wholesome, and should infidelity or immorality exist there at all, it will be in a form so feeble that its tickenings of life will but prove the moral healthfulness of the climate and its incongeniality to vice.

From the existence of a firm, healthy, Executive government will emanate a political atmosphere, so pure that demagoguism can scarcely maintain even a sickly vitality, whilst in its absence, corruption and peculation infect every breath, and the whole body politic becomes diseased and bloated.

So Mr. President, must be kept pure the sources of our professional atmosphere. Schools must be established and their chairs filled with professors of high moral, as well as professional worth—by men who look more to the advancement of science and the good of community, than to the pecuniary profit of their investment—by professors, who will impress upon the student the important fact that quackery as often exists under cover of a diploma as under the dogmas of Thompsonism or the feeble vagaries of Hahnemann—that his diploma is less an honor to him, than an appeal from his alma mater that he will honor her.

Our Medical Societies must be kept up. We must each contribute his mite of knowledge to the general fund for the benefit of others, and these contributions must be published for the benefit of all.

But am I met with the objection that meetings cannot be held, our proceedings published, and Schools established and maintained without money? Gentlemen, there is not in the Union a State with an educational fund so large in proportion to the objects calling for its investment, as that in which we live. We can not reach it?—We have never tried. Brodie, one of our greatest leaders tells us that "a thorough determination to attain an object is the first step towards its attainment;" and I entertain a more liberal opinion of our Legislators and our University Regents than to suppose that when this great question is properly laid before them they will deny to us the small sum, necessary to place upon a footing of usefulness that branch of education on which depends the health, the happiness, the life—aye, all the dearest temporal interests of community.

If then, we would apply an effectual remedy to quackery, we should begin now by rendering not only ourselves qualified "to shine before men" but by laying a foundation for the proper qualification of those who are to succeed us in this important calling. Let every legislator be approached on this subject. First show him a few of the many inconsistencies of the Statute books. Point out to him the liberal provisions there made to protect us against the purchase of bad whiskey, whilst the lives and health, and often even the reputation of families are entrusted to the mercy of the ignorant and mercenary vendor of drugs and medicines—show him with what unrelenting severity he has provided for the punishment of him who, by counterfeiting the penny or the dime, would cheat us of a single farthing, whilst complacently he looks on, and provides no punishment for him who pretending to a knowledge of the deep mysteries of disease counterfeits the Physician and cheats us of our health and our lives.

But what claims can our profession urge to the protection and favor of the State?—Claims, the bare thought of which swells the bosom of every lover of our science with pride and exultation, and I love to recount them—Whilst the States are paying their tens of thousands annually for the reports of their State Botanists, Mineralogists, Geologists, and Naturalists with what pride do we compare their meagre products with those furnished to the world by our profession for no other price than the gratification of their own love of science and humanity.—For examples, it is unnecessary to go beyond the precincts of our own country, but I refer for botanical research to our Bigelows, Barton, Torrey, Short, Beck, Lee, Davis, Thompson, dead, Kirtland and many scores of others, whose works are the foundations of the reports of all our State botanists.

In Mineralogy I begin by a reference to the Venerable Doct. Mitchill of New York, author of the Mineralogical History of New York and founder of the first State Mineralogical Society on this side of the Atlantic—From the long list of illustrious authors who [illegible] follow him I select only the names of Emmons, Jackson, Silliman, Dana, Rogers, [illegible], Lock, Owen, and our own Percival, any one of whom has done more for the science of Mineralogy, than all the State Mineralogists and Geologists as such since the offices were first created.

But I pass to another and perhaps more important class of our claims. What has the profession done for the preservation of health and the prolongation of life?

In reviewing these, time will not permit us to dwell on the advantages resulting from Harvey's great discovery of the circulation of the blood—from that greater discovery by which Jenner disarmed the small pox of its terrors, nor from the many reforms which we have introduced in the practice of Hygiene; but it drives us on to the question—How far have all these discoveries and improvements so modified human suffering and added to the length of human life? Here again I appeal to the record, but must stop to acknowledge my indebtedness to Professor Clark of New York for much of the statistical information to prove how much the Science of Medicine has lengthened human life.

Revelation tells us that man was created perfect, and that death was not necessarily a consequence of his creation. He was to be governed by natural laws, for the transgression of which the penalty was death. He transgressed and died, but the term of his life was little short of a thousand years. The next era in his history is the reduction of that tenure—in consequence of his continued transgression—to an hundred and twenty years; and shortly after we learn that it was three score years and ten.

This rapid shortening of life brought alarm, and with it physicians, but they were then necessarily unlearned in the profession, and death with his unblunted scythe hurried on, and each year found him more eager for his victim, till in the beginning of the eighteenth century, as we find by the report of the Registrar General of Northampton, the average length of life was barely thirty years, whilst in 1847 the average was increased to 37½ years, or just one quarter was added to the length of human life. This is a single instance—it can be almost indefinitely multiplied. But let me impress on you the fact that this increase commenced about 150 years ago, the very moment at which our profession began to acquire facilities for the study of Anatomy and Physiology, or at which we first acquired any certain data on which to found a correct theory of disease. I proceed to examine the results from those facilities, and how well the profession has turned them to good account.

I have just shown then that in Northampton, the life of man was in a little more than one hundred years increased by the addition of just one quarter.

We now take a later period and find from Doct. Simpson's statistics of Surgery, that the rate of yearly mortality in England and Wales in 1786, was one in forty two of the entire population; that it was gradually reduced, so that in 1831 the proportion of deaths to population, was one in fifty-eight, adding more than a quarter to the length of life, in the short space of forty-seven years.

Mr. Milne, in his Life Tables of Carlisle, furnishes us about the same results there from 1775 to 1844—and the report of the Registrar General of England down to 1846, the latest I have been able to obtain, shows just about a like decrease in the mortality for each of the eight preceding years.

But in France, where every facility has been afforded for the advancement of the science and where medicine has for a long time been a State institution, the statistics show that the progress in lengthening man's life, is wonderful indeed. We are all, more or less acquainted with the history of that nation, from 1776 to 1843, during which time war, pestilence and wild fanaticism, vied with each other in the work of death when the mechanic arts were to their highest capability, inventing instruments of destruction; when the profession of law was made subservient to those in power in their crusade against human life—when even the sacred desk sent forth its mandates of death on the charge of heresy—when in addition, the dire scourge of cholera was sweeping off its hundreds of thousands annually, and every art and every science, save that of medicine, seemed combined to decimate the land one profession alone stood firm in the battle for humanity—and with what results! The combination of all the forces enumerated was insufficient to counteract the influence of our science on the longevity of man, and even during the 26 years, when France was one great battle field, the average of man's life was lengthened! Whilst of those who died a natural death, nearly one-half, was added to the average term of their existence.

Thus far I have drawn only on Statistics from abroad, I pause but a moment to demonstrate that the results in our own land have not been less successful. In doing so, I shall take that view of it—the most unfavorable to us—where the struggle was directly with disease and death, leaving out all the indirect benefits of Hygiene, for which the world is wholly indebted to the profession.

The reports of the Pennsylvania Hospital at Philadelphia, show that in one hundred years, ending 1852, the reduction of the number of deaths proportioned to the number of sick, was nearly 30 in every hundred. In other words for every hundred who died in the early part of the century, thirty were restored to life and health in the latter part—and the New York Hospital reports show even better, for there we find, that in just half the time, the gain was 31 lives to the hundred, and yet these hospitals are in the same cities, on the same sites, are indeed the identical houses which were used in beginning of the century!—and with facts like these before the world, shall I be asked what claims we have on government—on community?

So much for the Profession, what can we say of its followers? Of those who toil to still further ameliorate the sufferings of their race, and to become in return the butt for all the gibes and sneers of those for whom they labor?

But first, Gentlemen of the Society, a word for you individually. I doubt whether there is one of you, who has not at times compared yourself with your professional brother, and in the comparison of moral virtue have felt your brother's inferiority; and I say it not in derogation but with pride, however much you may have admired his talents, his acquirements his manner, or his skill, you have wished that he possessed your humility, your kind sympathies, or your disinterested benevolence. In this Gentlemen, permit me to say that you err less in the appreciation of your own feelings than in the depreciation of his; for the very condition of our profession forbids the existence amongst us of the proud, the mercenary, or the heartless. The low estimate in which we, as a body, are held by our follow men "crushes out" pride. The fact that ninety-nine hundredths of all medical men live and die in poverty, or are driven to other pursuits for a living, excludes the mercenary. Whilst the poorly paid labor, exposure, and danger of our practice, most effectually bars the door against all those who would follow the profession for the sake of the pay. Rest easy then as to our quiet and our negative virtues, whilst we examine the active and the positive.

Often are we called on to join the grand chorus of the song which commemorates the success of some man or company who by an iron chain have "connected in marriage the distant Waters"—often to join in hallelujah's of those who by the electric wires have "abridged time" and almost annihilated distance—often to sing pæans to the inventors of articles for man's profit and enjoyment, but never to whisper one word of honor, nor even of encouragement, for those who have added so vastly to man's capability to profit and enjoy.

Our claims can be properly appreciated only by comparing them with those of others.

No obstacles are ever allowed to stand between the physician and his duty to community—no hardship to deter—no danger to arrest him—From the dreadful hour when the plague stricken Athens witnessed the almost superhuman efforts of Hippocrates, struggling against the ravages of the most dreadful plague that ever scourged the earth, down to the days when the Cholera struck terror to the Armies in the Crimea, the physician has never faltered in his duty to encounter danger wherever it presented—Are you a sufferer from disease? Call on your physician, and tho' every step should rise from the earth the poisoned miasm, though every breath be charged with pestilence, the danger to himself, to his family, and friends are all forgotten, and you never call in vain.

When the first news of the Cholera advancing to our shores was announced scarcely a cheek was seen unblanched or a heart unterrified—It came—It visited New York—Who does not remember the sad account, that followed? Death in its most appalling forms to hundreds daily—the inhabitants terror-stricken deserting their homes till half the population of the city, having abandoned their friends unable to follow, were seeking safety in flight.

We all remember how the public Journals painted the dreadful horrors of that time, and yet invoked some mightier power than pen or fancy to do Justice to the scene. But in the vivid recollection of all those horrors, one little circumstance has nearly escaped the memory—that of the five hundred physicians in New York, five hundred physicians there remained, except as they dropped one by one into the insatiate jaws of death—that from all the Medical Schools then filled with students, not a student fled the city—they only flying which they did was from sufferer to sufferer, or from time to eternity.

How and by whom have their dangers and their deaths been commemorated. Had they been mariners, and cast themselves into the ocean to save a shipwrecked crew, their dangers would have been less, their sufferings shorter, but what of the public receptions, which would have followed, of the grand processions, of the presentations to perpetuate the memory of their noble deeds!

Few of us have forgotten the scenes of Sandusky in '49, when the stoutest hearts quailed before the appalling pestilence which desolated that doomed city—when it was impossible, in the language of the Mayor, "to describe the desolation which withered the hearts of the strongest. The havoc was awful, our physicians worn down by toil, and more exhausting cares were flying" —not as others from the city, but from place to place of suffering and of danger—" and he continues "it [illegible] not a little to the meritoriousness [illegible] compensation from the [illegible] of their services that [illegible] I should [illegible] and the poor was declined." [illegible] do injustice, should I pass over the fact that in this instance, there was one at least who could appreciate the noble, self-sacrificing men who there stood between the living and the dead. For, concludes the Mayor, "though the citizen of Sandusky cannot find words to express his gratitude, he can thank God that his lot is cast where christian charities grow and flourish, and he can invoke God's best blessings on those who remembered him in the days of his sore distress."

We remember New Orleans a few years back when the yellow fever struck such terror to the souls of men, that of all those who could leave the City, the physicians alone remained.

Savannah too affords a striking illustration of the disinterestedness of our profession—when terror and death had relieved her of two thirds of her population—when the dying and the dead, the putrid and the living lay mingled together, and the boldest could not summon courage to venture on the separation, even here the physician never abandoned his post but sunk under the duties which his benevolence demanded. Twas then, that their brothers from abroad were summoned to their assistance. Mobile was called on, and tho' her physicians had barely rallied from the arduous duties which the prevalence of the pestilence there had imposed on them, yet not an hour was lost, and as one platoon sank before the dreadful scourge, another stepped into its place undismayed, unabating in energy, till health was restored to the city.

Even now a scene is transpiring illustrative of the character of medical men and of their appreciation by the public:

In the Crimea, the demon of War is at work. There stand Britain's oft tried heroes, calm and undismayed amid the dangers of the battle, and every English heart throbs with pride for the valor of her leaders. But at a short distance is a more fearful struggle—there the soldier in the vigor of life is stricken down by a hand he cannot see, an enemy he cannot resist. There the physician fights the soldier's battle, and the very sight of his saddest danger sends dismay to the heart of the hero whom the perils of twenty battles have failed to move. For one month before the last reports not a British officer had courage to look for a moment on that scene of desolation and death where the physician made his home.

But when Sebastopol shall have fallen—when the Mussulman and the Christian shall have marched together over the land of the Cossack—when Moscow shall have crumbled before the machinery of War, and hundreds of thousands of Russian citizens shall have slaked with their blood the ambition of the Saxon and the Gaul—when England's vengeance shall be glutted, and her glory borne to Heaven on the wailings of ten thousand of her own widows and orphans—then will be had the "triumphal entry" of England's benefactors—of the heroes who saved "their country!" But in that grand procession, what place, think you, will be assigned to the physician?—No matter! He deserves no place of mark—no expressions of a nation's gratitude for whilst the Leader has been most gloriously butchering his country's enemies, the physician has been content with the humble and menial occupation of quietly saving her friends!

I repeat that it is our duty, to relieve the community from the curse of quackery—that to do this we must leave off our abuse of it—that by our high example we must make the empiric to become the man of science—that we must make this reform permanent by providing such facilities for a proper scientific education, as shall create about us an atmosphere incongenial to impostors and empiricism—that we shall demand of community the means to enable us to provide such facilities—that we shall base these demands on the benefits we are constantly conferring on community, and by our sacrifices in its behalf.

Sir, permit me before closing to advert to some of the circumstances of the past year, and to say that much as we have accomplished, much more remains for us to do.

Whilst the dire accidents by flood and fire have filled the land with loud and bitter moanings, the effects of the pestilence which has swept over our state has so absorbed our attention and our sympathies, and presented to us so pointedly the fact of our inability in many instances to wrestle successfully with the mysteries of disease, as greatly to have closed our ears to the wailings from abroad. We have seen the pestilence seize upon our friends—we have in many instances found ourselves wholly incapable of arresting for a moment the progress of the disease—we have seen Death snatch his victim from us as uninterruptedly in his progress as though we had not been there to interpose. I hope that no member of this society in such cases allowed himself to be satisfied with the reflection that the result was one of God's providences, but that he more properly attributed it to his own ignorance of the nature and character of the pestilence, and that he determined not to be satisfied till he had fully unravelled the mystery.

But Death stopped not with our patients—he entered our own ranks, and selected as his victims two of the brightest ornaments of our professions—Dr. A P Ladd and Professor S. Pearl Lathrop. They each have left for us a bright example of their devotion to the advancement of education; and of a willingness to meet cheerfully the dangers of our profession, for the benefit of our race.

In closing, permit me, Gentlemen, to congratulate you on the fact that so much of harmony and good feeling has prevailed amongst us during our existence as a society, and to hope that in our efforts to elevate the standard of our professional attainments, the bonds of common interest which bind us together as a brotherhood, will also be thrown around us in the social circle, and that whilst we remember with profit the benefits resulting from our meetings, as a society, the recollections of our social intercourse may be as bright spots to cheer us through the darkness of our declining years.

Mr President, permit me sir, to congratulate you on your accession to the honorable position to which you have just been chosen, for I cannot well imagine a more honorable station than that of presiding over the deliberations of men engaged in the benevolent purpose of alleviating the sufferings of their fellow beings, and, aside from your success in the pursuit of the great objects of our association, I can express no higher wish for your official gratification than that the members of this society may accord to you the same generous support and liberal construction of motives, which I must gratefully acknowledge as having been extended to me during my official term, which closes with the performance of this duty.

The Truth of History.

Amongst other charges brought against Senator Seward, to defeat his re-election, was one alleging that he did not sincerely support Mr Clay in the canvass of 1844. This has brought to light, the following letter from the sage of Ashland:

ASHLAND, Nov. 20, 1844.

MY DEAR SIR: I duly received the two letters which you did me the favor to address to me; one written immediately after the interview of Mr. Lee, of Maryland, with you, and the other on the 7th inst, after the termination of the Presidential election in the State of New York. I feel greatly obliged by your prompt attention to my request communicated through Mr. Lee.

Throughout this whole political campaign, I have never doubted your good intentions, and have been constantly persuaded of your having employed your best exertions.

The sad result of the contest is now known. It is also irreversible, and we are only left to deplore that so good a cause, sustained by so many good men, has been defeated—defeated, too, by a combination of the most extraordinary adverse circumstances that perhaps ever before occurred. But it is now useless and unavailing to speculate upon the causes of the unfortunate issue of the contest. We are also too much under the excitement which it produced, and under depression created by that issue, calmly and deliberately to look through the gloom which hangs over the future. It will be time enough to do that after public has recovered from the disappointment which it has just experienced.

As for myself, it would be folly to deny that I feel the severity of the blow most intensely. I feel it for myself, but unless my heart deceives me, I feel it still more for my country and my friends. I had hoped to have been an humble instrument in the hand of Providence, to arrest the downward tendency of Government. I had hoped to have had it in my power to do justice to those able, valuable and virtuous friends who have been so long and cruelly proscribed and persecuted. But it has been otherwise decreed, and my duty now is that of resignation, and submission, cherishing the hope that some others, more fortunate than myself, may yet arise to accomplish that which I have not been allowed to effect. You are in the prime of life, endowed with great ability, and I trust that you will long be spared, in health and prosperity, to render great and good service to our common country.

Such will continue to be the prayer of your friend and obedient servant,
H. CLAY.

WM. H. SEWARD, Esq.

P. S.—I write by the hand of a son who acts as my amanuensis, upon my dictation. H. C.

PENNSYLVANIA SENATOR—ELECTION POSTPONED.—The two Houses of the Pennsylvania Legislature met in joint convention, for the third time, on Thursday last, to elect a Senator. Three ballots were taken, Gen. Cameron, Know-nothing Democrat, receiving 56 votes (66 being necessary to elect) to 23 for Buchanan, and the rest scattering. After the last ballot, a motion was made to adjourn till the first Tuesday in October next, and this motion prevailed, by the close vote of 66 yeas to 65 nays. So that the choice of a U. S. Senator goes over to the next Legislature, and Gen. Simon Cameron's exchange of "Democracy" for "Know-Nothingism" turns out to be an unprofitable investment.

MILWAUKEE CITY BONDS.—The N. Y. Tribune of the 24th instant contains the following announcement:

The semi-annual coupons on the bonds of the City of Milwaukee, issued to the Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago Railroad Co., due 1st March, will be paid at No. 52 Wall st., by O. B. Scofield.

DAMAGES FOR BREACH OF PROMISE.—The suit of Mary Smith vs. George Chackafield for breach of promise which has occupied the Court of Common Pleas and filled it to overflowing for two days, was decided yesterday by the rendition of a verdict of $1,500 for the plaintiff. A motion for a new trial was entered. The defendant was a widower with children, is now married, and is worth about $5,000.—[Chicago Dem. Press.

CITY MATTERS.

Police Court—March 1st.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH ESQ. POLICE JUSTICE

A man named John Harman, was tried for an alleged assault and battery upon Henry Wanderer found not guilty and discharged.

Charles Steinbess was arrested on a charge of assault and battery upon Charles Miller, Jr., a boy between six and seven years of age. The witnesses brought in to substantiate the charge were two little girls, one nine years, the other about six years of age. Both children were examined as to the nature of an oath, neither understanding the requisites of witnesses, the boy was then offered, to prove the assault and battery, when the Court remarked that he "didn't think he should be justified in putting such children under oath, their age didn't seem to warrant it, they might, if sworn tell the truth, but if they didn't they could not be held legally accountable, he must discharge the defendant."

Democratic City Convention.

The Sham Democracy held their Convention to nominate candidates for City Officers yesterday afternoon, Mayor KILBOURN in the Chair. On the first ballot for Mayor Mr. J. B. CROSS received 13 votes, Mr. H. L. PAGE 6, and Mr. J. B. MARTIN 5—and Mr. Cross was nominated.—Messrs J. B. EDWARDS and F. KUEHN the present Comptroller and Treasurer, were re-nominated without a ballot; and Mr. E FOOTE, for City Attorney, on the 4th ballot, by one majority.—For Marshal, the race was close between the present incumbent, JOHN MITCHELL, and his old competitor, TIM. O'BRIEN. The latter won the day by a single vote, 13 to 12. CLINTON WALWORTH was, by common consent, re-nominated for Police Justice.

The ticket is a weak one and can be beaten if the Tax-Payers and Business Men of our City see fit to make the necessary effort.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The jury, in the case of the State vs. Charles Zastro, on trial for larceny in a dwelling house, failing to agree, were discharged, after being out about six hours. We understand that they stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal.

The trial of Edward Fassbinder, for murder was commenced about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

MILWAUKEE & WATERTOWN R. R.—The business over this road for the short month of February has been very good. The receipts thus foot up—

For passengers,	$1323 10
For freight,	4 68 12
Total,	$5 91 22

Being an average of nearly $230 per day. The receipts for January were $4578 14—so that February shows a handsome increase.

This road is only opened, as yet, as far as Oconomowoc, 33 miles from this city; but will be extended to Watertown, 12 miles further in the course of the next four months. Yesterday, the indefatigable President, Dr. JAMES JOHNSON, sold $4,000 of its first mortgage bonds to Mr. QUENTIN, for European parties, at 80 cents.

BAYARD TAYLOR'S LECTURE.—Young's Hall was again densely crowded last night to hear Bayard Taylor's Lecture. The renowned traveller was listened to with marked attention; the audience evidently delighted in hearing the "Philosophy of Travel," philosophically described, by a peripatetic philosopher.

FIFTH WARD.—The Democracy of the Fifth Ward, at their caucus on Thursday evening, nominated the following ticket:

HENRY MILLMAN, Alderman for two years.
CHARLES JOHNSON, Alderman for one year.
W. W. YALE, Assessor.
C. CHARLES MAYER, Constable.
CARLTON HOLLAND, Railroad Commissioner.

We understand that Captain JAMES HUMPHREY received the plurality of the votes cast for Alderman for 2 years; but was "ruled out" by the Chairman, as not the right kind of a Democrat. From this decision Capt. HUMPHREY appeals to the Electors of the Ward, and we rather think they will reverse it at the polls.

THIRD WARD.—JAMES REED and PATRICK O'DONNELL are Independent Candidates for Aldermen in the Third Ward, and would make good ones.

CANDIDATE FOR MARSHAL.—J. McD. SMITH the popular Landlord of the Milwaukee House, is an Independent candidate for City Marshal, and would make a very good one.

MR. J. B. SMITH'S NEW VESSEL.—The types yesterday reduced the keel of J. B. SMITH's new vessel, which Capt. Barber is building, to 52 feet. We wrote and the paragraph should have read, 82 feet.

INDEPENDENT NOMINATIONS IN DETROIT.—The electors of Detroit, without distinction of party, have nominated Henry P BALDWIN, for Mayor, Jeramiah Van RENSSELEAR, for Recorder, WM JENNISON; for City Attorney, N B CARPENTER, for Treasurer, and W. H. BARSE, for Marshal.—The Tribune says:

The nominations were the unanimous choice of the Committee, and were confirmed by the Convention by acclamation. The ticket is one of the best, if not the very best, ever nominated in this city, and will be triumphantly elected. The City Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity by men of all parties, who evinced their approval of the ticket by three hearty cheers.

Why can't we get up and elect such a ticket in Milwaukee?

For the Daily Sentinel.

A Call for Information.

Messrs. Editors:—At the close of the years 1852 and 1853 following the adoption of the new City Charter, the aldermen of the 1st Ward then in office prepared and published a statement of the financial condition of the Ward, showing the amount of taxes levied for Ward purposes, and also the specific disbursements, to whom and for what purposes paid. Now I would suggest to the present aldermen of that Ward, as they are all in for a re-election, that it would be proper for them, at the close of the year 1854, to give us tax-payers an account of their stewardship in a like manner. This is more important from the fact that the assessment roll of the ward is largely increased, being more than one million of dollars, and the one per cent levied for Ward purposes exceeding ten thousand dollars. To this amount should be added the unexpended surplus of 1853, being about twenty five hundred dollars, making the total amount of Ward funds subject to their control Twelve Thousand Five Hundred Dollars at least. It is quite important, therefore, for the persons who contribute to furnish this fund for public improvements, to know how, and where this large amount of money has been expended, and to whom it has been paid. Hints have been thrown out by the knowing ones, that pretty much of the whole fund has been sliced out among certain contractors, for street and other work, at most enormous and extravagant prices, with a view to carry the election of the present incumbents this year.

A full and explicit statement of the Ward expenditures for the past year, will aid us very much in our conclusions, whether it is for our interest to go in for the present incumbents or not. Let us have it if you dare!

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma and all diseases of the lungs. We refer to "Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which, he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment a physician remarks:—It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor—the medical properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the aerial cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists throughout the country.—New York Dutchman, Jan 14th

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS—An Admirable Remedy for the Cure of Bile, Indigestion and Liver Complaints.—An American lady, the widow of an officer in the E. I. C. Service, had been residing many years in Calcutta, where her liver and stomach had become so deranged that she could with difficulty digest any kind of food. She suffered almost unceasingly from sick headache, nervousness and lowness of spirits, the results of a debilitated constitution. The medical aid she had there was of no avail, and her friends advised her to take up her residence at her sister's, in Savannah, Georgia. The latter lady persuaded her to have recourse to Holloway's Pills, which in about six weeks restored her to sound and perfect health, to the astonishment of her benevolent sister, who had given up all hope of her recovery.

St. Louis, Feb. 26.

Navigation to Kansas is closed.
Weather colder than ever.

Washington, Feb. 27.

The election of the city officers of Georgetown D. C., took place to-day, and resulted in the entire success of the Know-Nothings.

New Orleans, Feb. 27.

The steamboat Thomas de Daniel exploded all her six boilers a little below this city yesterday, killing 6 persons and wounding several others.—The boat is a complete wreck. The vessels she was towing are somewhat damaged.

A large fire occurred at Vicksburgh last night entailing a loss of $30,000. No business houses were destroyed.

Four Men Killed by a R. R. Train.

Boston, Feb. 27.

The four o'clock P. M. train of yesterday, from Lawrence, when near Lowell, ran into a carriage, containing four Irishmen, returning from a funeral. The carriage was demolished and the four occupants instantly killed.

From Washington.

Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

Washington, Friday, Feb. 23—Midnight.

The Senatorial debate this evening was very exciting. The speeches of Messrs. Fessenden, Wade, and Seward, were able, and unflinchingly on the side of Freedom. Mr. Douglas was characteristically impudent, while Messrs. Jones and Pettit were noisy and commonplace. Mr. Gillette made a good argument in favor of Emancipation in the District of Columbia. Mr. Wilson spoke briefly, and was applauded by Southern Senators. It is now midnight, and debate is progressing with spirit.

Mr. Houston's Tariff will most probably be voted down to-morrow.

The Collins Line bill may be reported tomorrow from the Senate Finance Committee. The opinion prevails that the measure will pass as it came from the House.

We have no "brothers who are always in the Eastern Markets," buying and selling ready made clothing, but we buy our goods direct from Manufacturers, Importers or Jobbers, without paying a second profit; and being entirely independent in our own means and resources, our Establishment being designed for the public benefit, it has under our management attained that favoritism and popularity which is unknown to any other public or private establishment. And we assure our customers that we are entirely willing to give them the full benefit of our selling at even 25 per cent less than cost, in order to remove to our New Store, built expressly by us for the accommodation of our increasing trade; and with the unfailing resources of our concern, and our strict attention to business, we are enabled to sell goods

THIS ESTABLISHMENT KNOWS NO OPPOSITION, ADMITS NO RIVAL but can, will and does outsell and undersell any establishment, Wholesale or Retail, West of New York!

She suffered almost unceasingly from sick headache, nervousness and lowness of spirits, the results of a debilitated constitution. The medical aid she had there was of no avail, and her friends advised her to take up her residence at her sister's, in Savannah, Georgia. The latter lady persuaded her to have recourse to Holloway's Pills, which in about six weeks restored her to sound and perfect health, to the astonishment of her benevolent sister, who had given up all hope of her recovery.

St. Louis, Feb. 26.

Navigation to Kansas is closed. Weather colder than ever.

Washington, Feb. 27.

The election of the city officers of Georgetown D. C., took place to-day, and resulted in the entire success of the Know-Nothings.

New Orleans, Feb. 27.

The steamboat Thomas McDaniel exploded all her six boilers a little below this city yesterday, killing 6 person and wounding several others.—The boat is a complete wreck. The vessels she was towing are somewhat damaged.

A large fire occurred at Vicksburgh last night entailing a loss of $30,000. No business houses were destroyed.

Four Men Killed by a R. R. Train.

Boston, Feb. 27.

The four o'clock P. M. train of yesterday, from Lawrence, when near Lowell, ran into a carriage, containing four Irishmen, returning from a funeral. The carriage was demolished and the four occupants instantly killed.

From Washington.

Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

Washington, Friday, Feb. 23—Midnight.

The Senatorial debate this evening was very exciting. The speeches of Messrs. Fessenden, Wade, and Seward, were able, and unflinchingly on the side of Freedom. Mr. Douglas was characteristically impudent, while Messrs. Jones and Pettit were noisy and commonplace. Mr. Gillette made a good argument in favor of Emancipation in the District of Columbia. Mr. Wilson spoke briefly, and was applauded by Southern Senators. It is now midnight, and debate is progressing with spirit.

Mr. Houston's Tariff will most probably be voted down to-morrow.

The Collins Line bill may be reported tomorrow from the Senate Finance Committee. The opinion prevails that the measure will pass as it came from the House.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY announce to the Public, that he has opened, on

Spring Street, Opposite the American House,

A NEW

PIANO FORTE WARE-ROOM!

Where he will keep on hand a good assortment of the celebrated

AMERICAN ACTION PIANO FORTES,

Manufactured by GEORGE HEWS, of Boston, Mass.

The Patent American Action Piano Forte is distinguished for its great fullness, richness and sweetness of tone, evenness of scale, and delicacy of touch. The improvement in the Action renders it less liable to derangement, and also greatly facilitates execution. Numerous medals, diplomas and certificates have been received from various fairs and industrial exhibitions in different cities of the Union, from the World's Fair at London, and flattering testimonials from the profession, residents at Boston and elsewhere among which are the following:

From the illustrious Pianist, L. M. GOTTSCHALK, to Mr Hews' Agent at New York.
NEW YORK, Dec. 6, 1853.

MR N. J. CURTISS —
Dear Sir: Having had the pleasure of performing upon one Hews' American Action Piano at the World's Fair in this city the present year, and other of his Pianos at your Wareroom, which afforded me much gratification, I cheerfully recommend them to the public. I am very glad of the improvement in the action. These instruments likewise are of excellent tone, owing, no doubt, to the perfection of the scales.
Very Respectfully, L. M. GOTTSCHALK

From the distinguished Pianist, WILLIAM MASON.
MR. HEWS—Having repeatedly played upon the Piano Fortes manufactured by you, with the American Action, I am free to acknowledge, that for certainty and elasticity of action, power, purity and equality of tone, I have never seen them surpassed in the square Piano Forte.
WILLIAM MASON.

Purchasers and lovers of music in general, are respectfully invited to call and examine these instruments. These Pianos will be sold at Boston prices, and warranted to give satisfaction in every respect.

☞ Pianos to Let. Old Pianos taken in exchange, and liberal prices allowed.

☞ Pianos Tuned and Repaired.

WE BEG TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF DEALERS in Clothing, &c., about to visit New York this season, to our very large stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER CLOTHING,

As we feel assured they will find it, from its extent, variety, style, and cheapness, well worthy of their consideration.

Whilst the disposition of our manufacturers this season has been to greatly reduce their stocks, we have availed ourselves of the advantages of a low market for goods and labor, to manufacture a much larger stock than we have ever done, which, consequently, we will be enabled to offer at remarkably low prices.

We would respectfully invite an examination.

OPPOSITION TO MONOPOLY.

Music at Greatly Reduced Rates

NOTWITHSTANDING the combination of music dealers to keep up the prices of non copy right music, against the interests of native composers, and their refusal to extend to Mr. Waters the courtesies of the trade, he is making immense sales—having abundant evidence that he has public countenance and support in his opposition to the Great Monopoly and in his efforts to aid Native talent, and to adopt the National Currency. His stock of American and European music is immense, and the catalogue of his own publications is one of the largest and best selected in the United States. He has also made a great Reduction in the prices of Pianos, Melodeons, and Musical Instruments of all kinds. Superior toned 6¾ octave Pianos for $175, $200 and $225, interior of as good quality and instruments as strong and as durable as those which cost $500. Gilbert & Co's make, (owner of the Æolian patent.) Second hand Pianos at great bargains. Prices from $40 to $150. Melodeons from five different manufactories, including the well known S. D. & H. W. USE THE

Magic Impression Paper!

For Writing without Pen or Ink, Copying Leaves, Plants, Flowers, Pictures, Patterns for Embroideries, Marking Linen Indelibly, and

MANIFOLD WRITING.

THIS ARTICLE IS ABSOLUTELY THE BEST PORTABLE inkstand in the known world, for a small quantity folded and placed in the pocket constitutes a travelling inkstand which cannot be broken. No pen is needed, for any stick sharpened to a point, writes equally as well as the best gold pen in the universe. For drawing it is indispensable. It is, indeed, the whole art of Drawing and Painting—taught in ONE LESSON. Any leaf, plant or flower can be transferred to the pages of an album with a minute and distinct resemblance of nature. With equal facility, pictures and embroidery patterns are taken, and have received the highest eulogiums from the fair sex, and, indeed, a more tasteful present for a lady could not be produced.

This Magic Paper will also mark Linen, or other articles so as to remain perfectly indelible. All the washing in the world fails to bring it out. Any child can use it with perfect ease. With this Magic Paper, likewise, one or four copies of every letter written can be secured without any additional labor whatever, making it the cheapest article extant. It is used to great advantage by reporters of the public press, telegraphic operators and hosts of others.

Each package contains four different colors—Black, Blue, Green, and Red, with full and printed instructions, for all to use, and will last sufficiently long to obtain Five hundred distinct impressions.

It is put up in beautifully enamelled, colored envelopes, with a truthful likeness of the Proprietor attached. Each and every package warranted.

PRICE—$2 a Dozen, or, Five for One Dollar. Single packages, 25 Cents. Address post paid,
N. HUBBELL, 167 Broadway, N. Y.

I continue to sell that good

BROTHER JONATHAN COOK STOVE,

I have sold the B. J. for the past three years. It has been thoroughly tested by thousands who will testify that it is the most complete Cook Stove that can be. I have four sizes of B. J. There is a summer attachment to the stove which will make half difference less of the amount of fuel used in the Summer season and does away with all unnecessary heat with other stoves unlike that have not the attachment. The oven is much larger than any other stove of the same size furniture. I warrant the stove to give complete satisfaction. If not, to be returned and money refunded. I will refer you to hundreds of the citizens of Milwaukee that are using the Stove.

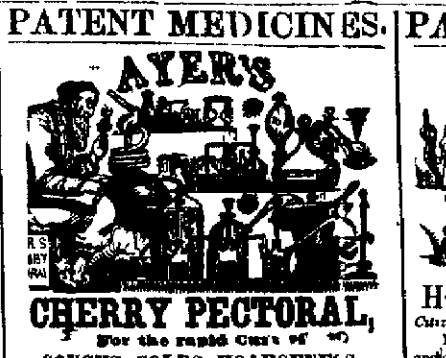
PATENT MEDICINES.

AYER'S



CHERRY PECTORAL,

For the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

AMONG the numerous discoveries Science has made in this generation to facilitate the business of life—increase its enjoyments, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than this contribution of Chemistry to the Healing Art. A vast trial of its virtues throughout this broad country, has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicines or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely control and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease which have hitherto swept from our midst thousands and thousands every year. Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe a Remedy has at length been found which can be relied on, to cure the most dangerous affections of the lungs. Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures effected by its use but we would present the following, and refer further enquiry to my American Almanac, which the Agents below named, will always be pleased to furnish free, wherein are all particulars, and indisputable proof of these statements.

Office of Transportation, Laurens R. R., S C, Aug 1, '53.

DR. J. C. AYER. Dear Sir,—My little son, four years old, has just recovered from a severe attack of malignant Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten, and every person that visited him pronounced him a dead child. Having used your CHERRY PECTORAL, in California, in the winter of 1850, for a severe attack of Bronchitis, with entire success, I was induced to try it on my little boy. I gave him a teaspoonful every three hours, commencing in the evening, and by 10 o'clock at night, I found a decided change for the better, and after three days use, he was able to eat or drink without pain.

Its use in the above named disease will save many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the anxiety of many a fond parent. For all affections of the Throat and Lungs I believe it is the best medicine extant. A feeling of the deepest gratitude prompts me in addressing you these lines,—but for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been in another world.
I am yours, with great respect
J. D. POWELL, Supt Trans. L. R. R.

Rocky Hill, Somerset Co., N. J., July 21, 1852

DR. J. C. AYER—Since your medicine has become known here it has a greater demand than any other cough remedy we have ever sold. It is spoken of in terms of unmeasured praise by those who have used it, and I know of some cases where the best they can say of it is not too much for the good it has done. I take pleasure in selling it, because I know that I am giving my customers the worth of their money, and I feel gratified in seeing the benefit it confers.

Please send me a further supply, and believe me
Yours with respect, JOHN C. WHITLOCK.

P. S.—Almost any number of certificates can be sent you if you wish it.

Windsor, C. W., Jan 26, 1855

DR. J. C. AYER—Sir:—This may certify that I have used your CHERRY PECTORAL for upwards of one year, and it is my sincere belief that I should have been in my grave ere this time if I had not. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, and I do not overstate my convictions when I tell you it is a priceless remedy.
Yours very respectfully,
D. A. McCLURE, Attorney at Law

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sep 22 1850

DR. J. C. AYER—My dear Sir:—Your medicine is much approved by those who have used it here, and its composition is such as to insure and maintain its reputation. I invariably recommend it for pulmonary affections, as do many of our principal physicians. I am your friend,

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT

THIS EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE IS STILL working wonders throughout the World—eradicating everything in the form of disease that comes within the circle of its influence.

The People Themselves

have long since adopted it as the only external remedy they could rely upon, and the indisputable testimony of thousands is fast sweeping away

The Prejudices of the Faculty.

It is extensively used by the Ladies,
It is used by Mechanics and Laboring men,
It is used in families and factories,
It is used expressly by all Express Companies,
It is used by Farmers and Livery stable keepers,
It is used by everybody, and all speak its praise,
Where it is used, pain cannot exist,
The benumbed limbs are made elastic
The deep ulcers and frightful sores are healed,
The unstrung nerves are made to vibrate with joy!

Use the Mustang Liniment.

Is the spontaneous advice of all.
It has cured more cases of

than any other medicine ever used. Its efficacy in this terrible disease is acknowledged by all who have used it. It not only cures the complaint, but appears to give vigor and elasticity to the limbs, before unknown—thus performing a double office.

For contractions of the limbs, stiffness of the joints and muscles, hard lumps, swellings and inflammation, it is unrivalled in the power and efficacy of its operations.

For Bruises, Sprains, Cuts, Scalds and Burns, but a few applications are necessary in order to effect a total cure.

Cancer, or Scrofulous Sores, Tetter, Ringworms, Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Erysipelas, Boils, and Eruptions, can generally be removed in a few days—and the worst cases can be cured in a few weeks at the farthest. Persons afflicted with these diseases, should be careful in getting the right article to cure them.

Use it upon Your Horses,

for spavin, splint, ring bone, fistula, wind-galls, big heads, bruises, strains, string halt, scratches, cracked heels, sweeney, saddle, collar, or harness galls, hard lumps or tumors, film or other diseases of the eye, poll evil, &c.

The finest horses in the city of New York will be found in the stables of the various Express Companies—and they all use totally discarding any other preparations of the kind, and have all given their certificate in its favor.

The Mustang Liniment

This we presume will be a sufficient guarantee to induce every one who owns a horse, to give the Mustang a trial.

THERE is no Druggist or Country Store keeper
Who pretends to keep medicine at all,
But what keeps a constant supply of the Mexican Mustang Liniment.

The small size retail for 25 cents per bottle,
The medium sized retail for 50 cents per bottle,
The large sized retail for one dollar per bottle,
The medium hold three times as much as the small
The large holds nearly three times as much as the medium,
Therefore the largest bottles are the cheapest.

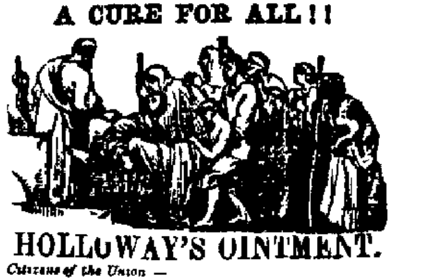
A CURE FOR ALL!!



HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Citizens of the Union—

You have done me the honor with one voice, from one end of the Union to the other to stamp the character of my Ointment with your approbation. It is scarcely two years since I made it known among you, and already, it has obtained more celebrity than any other Medicine in so short period. THOMAS HOLLOWAY,
38, Corner of Ann and Nassau Streets, New York

CURE OF SORE LEGS, AFTER 9 YEARS STANDING

Mr W J Langley, of Huntsville, Yadkin, North Carolina, suffered for nine years with one of the most painful and troublesome sore legs that ever fell to the lot of man; and after trying every medicine he had ever heard of he resigned in despair all hope of being cured, but a friend brought him a couple of Pots of Holloway's Ointment, which caused the sores on his legs to heal, and he entirely regained his health, to the astonishment of his acquaintances and friends.

CURE OF A BAD BREAST, WHEN THE PATIENT WAS AT DEATH'S DOOR

Mr R DURANT, of New Orleans, addressed Professor HOLLOWAY as follows—For 7 years my wife had a bad breast, with ten running wounds, (not of a cancerous nature,) I was told that nothing could save her, she was then induced to use your Ointment and Pills, when in the short space of three months, they effected a perfect cure, to the astonishment of all who know us. We obtained your Medicines from Messrs Wright & Co. of Chartres st., New Orleans. I send this from "Hotel des Princes," Paris, although I had written it at New Orleans, before we finally left not knowing your address at New York.
Nov 9th, 1853 (Signed) R DURANT.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases—

Bad Legs	Contracted and	Lumbago	Sore throats
Bad Breasts	Stiff Joints	Piles	Skin diseases
Burns	Fistulas	Rheumatism	Scurvy
Bunions	Gout	Salt Rheum	Sore heads
Chilblains	Glandular	Scalds	Ulcers
Chapped hands	swellings	Sore nipples	Wounds

MEDICATED INHALATION

A NEW METHOD.

A MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr CURTIS, for the cure of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Complaints, by Medicated Inhalation. Dr. CURTIS'S HYGEANA, or INHALING HYGEAN VAPOR and CHERRY SYRUP, has accomplished the most wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the City of New York and vicinity for a few months past, ever known to man. It is producing an impression on Diseases of the Lungs never before witnessed by the medical profession. [See certificates in hands of Agents.]

The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the linen, without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid,—supplying the lungs constantly with a healing and agreeable vapor, passing into all the air cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by any other medicine. Here is a case of

ASTHMA CURED.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 26th 1853

For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma, for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description, months at a time I have not been able to sleep in a bed, getting what rest I could sitting in my chair. My difficulty of breathing, and my sufferings, were so great at times, that for hours together my friends expected each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. I at length had the good fortune to procure Dr. Curtis's Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued it with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from. My advice to the suffering is—TRY IT.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

NEW YORK, Dec 27th 1853

I came to New York in the ship Telegraph, my native place is St. John, New Brunswick; when I reached this city, my health was very poor, had a very bad cough, raised a great deal of matter, which was frequently mixed with blood, had pain in my left side, and was very weak and emaciated. My friends and physician pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily believe was the means of saving my life.—Soon after wearing the Inhaler, I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I took the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and believing it strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it.

MEDICATED INHALATION!

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED, AS TREATED BY

DR. E. N. TRIST,

WITH HIS CELEBRATED

HYGEN & OXYGENIC VAPOR!

DR. TRIST, Graduate of the Royal College of Surgeons in London and the recipient of diplomas from the Lung Institution of Edinburgh, and Hotel des Invalides of Paris, having settled permanently in New York for the practice of his profession begs leave to suggest to the citizens of the United States that several years of study and successful experiments in England and Scotland, as well as other parts of Europe, with Consumption in all its forms, enable him to warrant, not only relief, but a complete cure to all those suffering with this great national disease.

Dr TRIST deems it unprofessional to advertise; but others having represented themselves as the originators of the Inhalation Treatment, he would say to the afflicted that he alone is entitled to its first introduction, and would caution all against using the useless and dangerous compounds advertised by incompetent persons.

"Take up thy bed and walk."

Dr. TRIST would say to those interested that he has had manufactured, for the use of his patrons, his "Patent Inhaling Tubes," through which the vapor is conveyed to the parts affected, and which he earnestly commends for the cheering results which have attended their use, and the fact that they may be used by the most feeble invalid without any unpleasant symptoms.

To those residing out of the city, Dr. Trist will forward one of the Inhaling Tubes, together with a package of the Vapor, sufficient to last for three months, accompanied with ample directions for use, on receipt of a letter containing Ten Dollars, and describing symptoms.

A cure is warranted in all stages of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all other affections of the throat, lungs, and Air Passages. In case of failure, the money will be returned.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

To the Afflicted Everywhere,

DR. A. L. ADAMS' LIVER BALSAM

COMES GREETING!

DR. A. L. ADAMS' NEW CURE FOR DISEASE is awakening the inquiry in the minds of all who read it. How is it that Americans have been so long and so lavishly immersed in darkness and ignorance on the subject of disease.

DR. A. L. ADAMS' LIVER BALSAM.

The great Panacea of Disease is offered to the citizens of the States and Territories for the entire cure of Liver Complaints in all stages, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Chronic Lung Fever, Dropsical Affections, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Jaundice, Bowel Complaints, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Piles, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Dyspepsia, General Debility, Nervousness, Costiveness, Indigestion, Female Complaints, &c.

Dr. A. L. Adams' Liver Balsam now sustains the highest reputation of any remedy before the public and has proved to the most skeptical, beyond a shadow of doubt that it is the only reliable medicine ever discovered (being purely vegetable) for the permanent cure of the above disease. The most skeptical have become its most sanguine votaries, and pronounce the Liver Balsam to be the only reliable harbinger of health to the afflicted everywhere.

Testimonials come up from every track it has made, swollen with expressions of gratitude for the relief received by its use. And, in submitting this, the Liver Balsam is recommended to those suffering under the iron grasp of the monster disease, and at once procure one bottle of Dr. A. L. Adams' Liver Balsam.

The reader's attention is called to the perusal of the Medical Circular, which can be obtained of every agent throughout the United States, giving a clear exposition of the causes and cure of disease; also, of certificates of those who have tested its unparalleled ascendency over the disease to which we are all subject.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY announce to the Public, that he has opened, on

Spring Street, Opposite the American House,

A NEW

PIANO FORTE WARE-ROOM!

Where he will keep on hand a good assortment of the celebrated

AMERICAN ACTION PIANO FORTES,

Manufactured by GEORGE HEWS, of Boston, Mass.

The Patent American Action Piano Forte is distinguished for its great fullness, richness and sweetness of tone, evenness of scale, and delicacy of touch. The improvement in the Action renders it less liable to derangement, and also greatly facilitates execution. Numerous medals, diplomas and certificates have been received from various fairs and industrial exhibitions in different cities of the Union, from the World's Fair at London, and flattering testimonials from the profession, residents at Boston and elsewhere among which are the following:

From the illustrious Pianist, L. M. GOTTSCHALK, to Mr. Hews' Agent at New York

New York, Dec 5, 1853.

Mr. N. J. CURTISS — Dear Sir: Having had the pleasure of performing upon the Hews' American Action Piano at the World's Fair in this city the present year, and other of his Pianos at your Wareroom, which afforded me much gratification, I cheerfully recommend them to the public. I am very glad of the improvement in the action. These instruments likewise are of excellent tone, owing, no doubt, to the perfection of the scales.

Very Respectfully, L. M. GOTTSCHALK

From the distinguished Pianist, WILLIAM MASON

Mr. HEWS—Having repeatedly played upon the Piano Fortes manufactured by you, with the American Action, I am free to acknowledge, that for certainty and elasticity of action, power, purity and equality of tone, I have never seen them surpassed in the square Piano Forte.

WILLIAM MASON

Purchasers and lovers of music in general, are respectfully invited to call and examine these instruments. These Pianos will be sold at Boston prices, and warranted to give satisfaction in every respect.

Pianos to Let. Old Pianos taken in exchange, and liberal prices allowed.

Pianos Tuned and Repaired.

WE BEG TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF DEALERS in Clothing, &c., about to visit New York this season, to our very large stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER CLOTHING,

As we feel assured they will find it, from its extent, variety, style, and cheapness, well worthy of their consideration.

Whilst the disposition of our manufacturers this season has been to greatly reduce their stocks, we have availed ourselves of the advantages of a low market for goods and labor, to manufacture a much larger stock than we have ever done, which, consequently, we will be enabled to offer at remarkably low prices.

We would respectfully invite an examination.

OPPOSITION TO MONOPOLY.

Music at Greatly Reduced Rates.

NOTWITHSTANDING the combination of music dealers to keep up the prices of non copy right music, against the interests of native composers, and their refusal to extend to Mr. Waters the courtesies of the trade, he is making tremendous sales—having abundant evidence that he has public countenance and support in his opposition to the Great Monopoly, and in his efforts to aid Native Talent, and to adopt the National Currency. His stock of American and European music is immense, and the catalogue of his own publications is one of the largest and best selected in the United States. He has also made a great Reduction in the prices of Pianos, Melodeons, and Musical Instruments of all kinds. USE THE

Magic Impression Paper!

For Writing without Pen or Ink, Copying Leaves, Plants Flowers Pictures, Patterns for Embroidery, Marking Linen Indelibly, and

MANIFOLD WRITING.

THIS ARTICLE IS ABSOLUTELY THE BEST FOR table folded in the known world for a small quantity folded and placed in the pocket constitutes a traveling inkstand which cannot be broken. No pen is needed, for any stick sharpened to a point, writes equally as well as the best gold pen in the universe. For drawing it is indispensable. It is, indeed, the whole art of Drawing and Painting—taught in one lesson. Any leaf, plant or flower can be transferred to the pages of an album with minute and distinct resemblance of nature. With equal facility, pictures and embroidery patterns are taken, and have received the highest eulogiums from the fair sex, and, indeed, a more tasteful present for a lady could not be produced.

This Magic Paper will also mark Linen, or other articles so as to remain perfectly indelible. All the washing in the world fails to bring it out. Any child can use it with perfect ease. With this Magic Paper, likewise, one or four copies of every letter written can be secured without any additional labor whatever, making it the cheapest article extant. It is used to great advantage by reporters of the public press, telegraphic operators and hosts of others.

Each package contains four different colors—Black, Blue, Green, and Red, with full and printed instructions, for all to use, and will last sufficiently long to obtain Five hundred distinct impressions.

It is put up in beautifully enamelled, colored envelopes, with a truthful likeness of the Proprietor attached. Each and every package warranted.

PRICE—$2 a Dozen, or, Five for One Dollar. Single Packages, 25 Cents. Address post paid,

N. HUBBELL, 167 Broadway, N. Y.

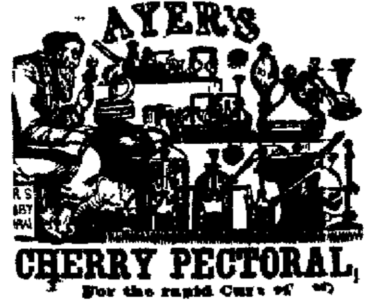
PATENT MEDICINES.



CHERRY PECTORAL,

For the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

AMONG the numerous discoveries Science has made in this generation to facilitate the business of life—increase its enjoyments, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than this contribution of Chemistry to the Healing Art. A vast trial of its virtues throughout this broad country, has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicine or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely control and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease which have hitherto swept from our midst thousands and thousands every year. Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe a Remedy has at length been found which can be relied on, to cure the most dangerous affections of the lungs. Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures effected by its use but we would present the following, and refer further enquiry to my American Almanac, which the Agents below named, will always be pleased to furnish free, wherein are all particulars, and indisputable proof of these statements.

DR. J. C. AYER. Dear Sir,—My little son, four years old, has just recovered from a severe attack of malignant Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten, and every person that visited him pronounced him a dead child. Having used your CHERRY PECTORAL, in California, in the winter of 1850, for a severe attack of Bronchitis, with entire success, I was induced to try it on my little boy. I gave him a teaspoonful every three hours, commencing in the morning, and by 10 o'clock at night, I found a decided change for the better, and after three days use, he was able to eat or drink without pain.

Its use in the above named disease will save many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the anxiety of many a fond parent. For all affections of the Throat and Lungs I believe it is the best medicine extant. A feeling of the deepest gratitude prompts me in addressing you these lines,—but for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been in another world.

I am yours, with great respect

J. D. POWELL, Supt. Trans. L. R. R.

Rocky Hill, Somerset Co., N. J., July 21, 1852

DR. J. C. AYER.—Since your medicine has become known here it has a greater demand than any other cough remedy we have ever sold. It is spoken of in terms of unmeasured praise by those who have used it, and I know of some cases where the best they can say of it is not too much for the good it has done. I take pleasure in selling it, because I know that I am giving my customers the worth of their money, and I feel gratified in seeing the benefit it confers.

Please send me a further supply, and believe me

Yours with respect, JOHN C. WHITLOCK.

P. S.—Almost any number of certificates can be sent you if you wish it.

Windsor, C. W., Jan 26, 1855

DR. J. C. AYER—Sir:—This may certify that I have used your CHERRY PECTORAL for upwards of one year, and it is my sincere belief that I should have been in my grave ere this time if I had not. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, and I do not overstate my conviction when I tell you it is a priceless remedy.

Yours very respectfully,

D. A. McCLURE, Attorney at Law

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept 28 1850

DR. J. C. AYER.—My dear Sir:—Your medicine is much approved by those who have used it here, and its composition is such as to insure and maintain its reputation. I invariably recommend it for pulmonary affections, as do many of our principal physicians. I am your friend,

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT

THIS EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE IS STILL working wonders throughout the World—overflowing everything in the form of disease that comes within the circle of its influence.

The People Themselves

have long since adopted it as the only external remedy they could rely upon, and the indisputable testimony of thousands is fast sweeping away

The Prejudices of the Faculty.

It is extensively used by the Ladies,
It is used by Mechanics and Laboring men,
It is used in families and factories,
It is used expressly by all Express Companies,
It is used by Farmers and Livery stable keepers,
It is used by everybody, and all speak in its praise,
Where it is used, pain cannot exist,
The benumbed limbs are made elastic,
The deep ulcers and frightful sores are healed,
The unstrung nerves are made to vibrate with joy!

Use the Mustang Liniment.

is the spontaneous advice of all

It has cured more cases of

than any other medicine ever used. Its efficacy in this terrible disease is acknowledged by all who have used it. It not only cures the complaint, but appears to give vigor and elasticity to the limbs, before unknown—thus performing a double office.

For contractions of the limbs, stiffness of the joints and muscles, hard lumps, swellings and inflammations, it is unrivalled in the power and efficacy of its operations.

For Bruises, Sprains, Cuts, Scalds and Burns, but a few applications are necessary in order to effect a total cure.

Cancer, or Scrofulous Sores, Tetter, Ringworms, Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Erysipelas, Boils, and Eruptions, can generally be removed in a few days—and the worst cases can be cured in a few weeks at the farthest. Persons afflicted with these diseases, should be careful in getting the right article to cure them.

Use it upon Your Horses,

for spavin, splint, ring bone, fistula, wind-galls, big heads, bruises, strains, string halt, scratches, cracked heels, sweeney, saddle, collar, or harness galls, hard lumps or tumors film or other diseases of the eye, poll evil, &c.

The finest horses in the city of New York will be found in the stables of the various Express Companies and they all use totally discarding any other preparations of the kind, and have all given their certificate in its favor.

This we presume will be a sufficient guarantee to induce every one who owns a horse, to give the Mustang a trial.

THERE is no Druggist or Country Store keeper
Who pretends to keep medicine at all,
But what keeps a constant supply of the Mexican Mustang Liniment.

The small size retail for 25 cents per bottle,
The medium sized retail for 50 cents per bottle,
The large sized retail for one dollar per bottle,
The medium hold three times as much as the small
The large holds nearly three times as much as the medium.

Therefore the largest bottles are the cheapest.

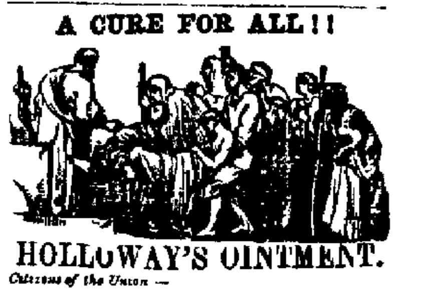
A CURE FOR ALL!!



HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Citizens of the Union—

You have done me the honor with one voice, from one end of the Union to the other to stamp the character of my Ointment with your approbation. It is scarcely two years since I made it known among you, and already, it has obtained more celebrity than any other Medicine in so short period.

CURE OF SORE LEGS, AFTER 9 YEARS STANDING

Mr. W. J. Langley, of Huntsville, Yadkin, North Carolina suffered for nine years with one of the most painful and troublesome sore legs that ever fell to the lot of man; and after trying every medicine he had ever heard of he resigned in despair all hope of being cured, but a friend brought him a couple of Pots of Holloway's Ointment, which caused the sores on his legs to heal, and he entirely regained his health, to the astonishment of his acquaintances and friends.

CURE OF A BAD BREAST, WHEN THE PATIENT WAS AT DEATH'S DOOR

Mr. R. DURANT, of New Orleans, addressed Professor HOLLOWAY as follows:—For 7 years my wife had a bad breast, with ten running wounds, (not of a cancerous nature,) I was told that nothing could save her, she was then induced to use your Ointment and Pills, when in the short space of three months, they effected a perfect cure, to the astonishment of all who know us. We obtained your Medicines from Messrs Wright & Co., of Chartres st, New Orleans. I send this from "Hotel des Princes," Paris, although I had written it at New Orleans, before we finally left not knowing your address at New York.

Nov 9th, 1853 (Signed) R. DURANT.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—

Bad Legs	Contracted and	Lumbago	Sore throats
Bad Breasts	Stiff Joints	Piles	Skin diseases

MEDICATED INHALATION

A NEW METHOD.

A MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. CURTIS, for the cure of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Complaints, by Medicated Inhalation. Dr. CURTIS'S HYGEANA, or INHALING HYGEAN VAPOR and CHERRY SYRUP, has accomplished the most wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the City of New York and vicinity for a few months past, ever known to man. It is producing an impression on Diseases of the Lungs never before witnessed by the medical profession. (See certificates in hands of Agents.)

The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the linen, without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid,—supplying the lungs constantly with a healing and agreeable vapor, passing into all the air cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by any other medicine. Here is a case of

ASTHMA CURED.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 20th 1853

For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma, for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description, months at a time I have not been able to sleep in a bed, getting what rest I could sitting in my chair. My difficulty of breathing, and my sufferings, were so great at times, that for hours together my friends expected each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. I at length had the good fortune to procure Dr. Curtis's Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued it with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from. My advice to the suffering is—TRY IT.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

NEW YORK, Dec 27th 1853

I came to New York in the ship Telegraph, my native place is St. John, New Brunswick; when I reached this city, my health was very poor, had a very bad cough, raised a great deal of matter, which was frequently mixed with blood, had pain in my left side, and was very weak and emaciated. My friends and physician pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily believe was the means of saving my life. Soon after wearing the Inhaler, I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I took the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and believing it strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it.

HYGEN & OXYGENIC VAPOR!

DR. TRIST, Graduate of the Royal College of Surgeons in London, and the recipient of diplomas from the Lung Institution of Edinburgh, and Hotel des Invalides of Paris, having settled permanently in New York for the practice of his profession begs leave to suggest to his citizens of the United States that several years of study and successful experiments in England and Scotland, as well as other parts of Europe, with Consumption in all its forms, enable him to warrant, not only relief, but a complete cure to all those suffering with this great national disease.

Dr. TRIST deems it unprofessional to advertise; but others having represented themselves as the originators of the Inhalation Treatment, he would say to the afflicted that he alone is entitled to its first introduction, and would caution all against using the useless and dangerous compounds advertised by incompetent persons.

"Take up thy bed and walk."

Dr. TRIST would say to those interested that he has had manufactured, for the use of his patrons, his "Patent Inhaling Tubes," through which the vapor is conveyed to the parts affected, and which he earnestly commends for the cheering results which have attended their use, and the fact that they may be used by the most feeble invalid without any unpleasant symptoms.

To those residing out of the city, Dr. Trist will forward one of the Inhaling Tubes, together with a package of the Vapor, sufficient to last for three months, accompanied with simple directions for use, on receipt of a letter containing Ten Dollars, and describing symptoms.

A cure is warranted in all stages of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all other affections of the throat, Lungs, and Air Passages. In case of failure, the money will be returned.
